SENATOR DELEGATION VISIT

31 DEC 2010

A Congressional Delegation consisting of Oklahoma Senator James Inhofe, Wyoming Senator John Barrasso, and North Carolina Senator Kay Hagan, visited Camp Arifjan on 31 December to receive updates on current operations on behalf of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Senator Inhofe, Senator Barrasso, and Senator Hagan were greeted by Colonel Donnie Walker, Commander of the 1st Sustainment Brigade. The Delegation's visit with the Soldiers and Airmen of the 1st Sustainment Brigade at the Convoy Staging Lanes was the main event for their stop in Kuwait with Third Army.

Soldiers and Airmen of the 718th Transportation Battalion and Joint Logistics Task Force 7 welcomed the Delegation to Kuwait and guided the Senators through various types of vehicles used by the 1SB during convoy operations in support of the Responsible Drawdown, as well as logistical support missions during Operation IRAQI FREEDOM and Operation NEW DAWN.
