VOL. VIII, NO. 47

U. S. MARINE CORPS AIR STATION, KANEHOE BAY, HAWAII

November 20, 1959

Cancer Victim

COURAGEOUS GIRL HONORED DURING DAY-LONG K-BAY VISIT

The gate at the Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station, and the hearts of its Marines will be open to twelve-year-old Evelyn Hicks when she visits here Monday, Nov. 23.

Col. M. M. Magruder, Station commander, has invited the youthful cancer victim to spend the day with the Kaneohe-based Marines.

The Marines at the air station will do everything in their power to make Evelyn's visit one she will long remember. No one knows how long she will remember her visit; doctors stated that her life expectancy is uncertain. Evelyn knows this too, but she had one dream. "to see Hawaii."

APPEAL ANSWERED

Radio station KULA hearing of Evelyn's condition appealed to the people of Hawaii to make her dream come true. Donations poured in and a trip was arranged for Evelyn. She arrived for a two-week stay, accompanied by her parents and older sister, Nov. 15.

Evelyn is scheduled to arrive at K-Bay about 12:30 p.m. Monday.

Prior to arriving at K-Bay Evelyn will be the luncheon guest of Bob Rinker at the Pali Palms Hotel.

K-BAY

Evelyn will then begin a whirlwind tour of the Station beginning with a trip to Kansas Tower. She will then visit and tour the 4th Marines area, and meet Col. J. W. Antonelli, the regimental commander.

In addition, she will visit the rifle range, Hangar 105 where she will get a close look at Marine aircraft, and then proceed to the Crash Boathouse where she will meet Mark and Marshall Magruder, sons of the Station commander.

While at the boathouse, Evelyn will board one of the crash boats for a ride in Kaneohe Bay, and a water tour of Coconut Island.

OTHER STATION EVENTS

Evelyn will next witness the golf exhibition by Paul Hahn at the golf course where she will also meet Col. and Mrs. Magruder.

As a climax to her visit, Evelyn will witness the Sunset Parade at Dewey Square and be introduced to Maj. Gen. F. L. Wieseman, Brigade commander, and Lt. Col. B. H. Elliott, commanding officer of 3rd Bn., 12th Marines, the unit participating in the parade.

Evelyn and her family will depart the air station for the return trip to their Waikiki hotel at about 6 p.m.

Families Invited To Thanksgiving Feast in Messhall

K-Bay's Mess Hall No. 2 will again be the scene of the Marine Corps' traditional Thanksgiving Day dinner at which time Marines may host their dependents with a military menu.

Personnel authorized to subsist in the general mess and their bona-fide guests are authorized to eat the Thanksgiving Day dinner in the Mess Hall.

Tickets may be purchased from now until Nov. 24 at the Station Food Services Office, Bldg. 208.

Prices are as follows: officers and authorized civilian adults, $1.20; enlisted personnel in commuted ration status, $1.00 and children under 12 years of age, 60-cents.

Dinner will be served from 2 to 5 p.m.

Due to the limited seating capacity it is imperative that personnel purchase their tickets as soon as possible to facilitate proper scheduling.

Starring on the menu are roast hen turkey with giblet gravy and Virginia baked ham with pineapple sauce.

For a complete listing of the gastronomic supporting cast, read the menu on page 5.

Gen. Wieseman Named to HQMC Plans Billet; New Brigade CG, Gen. Weede, Here Tuesday

Headquarters Marine Corps announced last week that Maj. Gen. Frederick L. Wieseman will become the next deputy chief of staff (Plans) when he reports to Washington, D.C., in December.

He will relieve Maj. Gen. Wallace M. Greene, Jr., who will step up to the chief of staff position now held by Lt. Gen. David M. Shoup. Gen. Greene is slated for promotion to lieutenant general.

NEW BRIGADE COMMANDER

Brig. Gen. Richard G. Weede will assume command of the 1st Marine Brigade here Nov. 30 during a formal parade and review ceremony.

In other changes announced by Headquarters Marine Corps, Maj. Gen. John C. Munn, now director of aviation, HQMC, will succeed Lt. Gen. Verne J. McCaul as assistant commandant of the Marine Corps. Gen. Munn is also scheduled for promotion to lieutenant general.

As previously announced, Gen. McCaul will retire Jan. 1.

NEW QUARTERMASTER GENERAL

Brig. Gen. Chester R. Allen, now assistant quartermaster general, will succeed Maj. Gen. Roy M. Gulick as quartermaster general. Gen. Gulick has requested retirement Jan. 1 after completing more than 33 years Marine Corps service.

Headquarters Marine also announced the following general officer reassignments:

NEW DIRECTOR OF AVIATION

Maj. Gen. Arthur F. Binney, now commanding general of the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing, Cherry Point,

NEW CG — Brig. Gen. Richard G. Weede is scheduled to arrive at Pearl Harbor Tuesday morning aboard the USNS Barrett. He is accompanied by his wife. He served last as CG, MCRD, San Diego.

Chinese Officers Visit 1st Brigade

A 13-gun salute was fired yesterday morning during Dewey Square honors rendered to Maj. Gen. SU Yang, commanding general of the newly activated Fleet Marine Force, Chinese Marine Corps.

The firing marked the beginning of a day long orientation visit of Gen SU and five other Chinese Marine Corps officers with the 1st Marine Brigade at K-Bay.

Hosting the Chinese General here was Maj. Gen. F. L. Wieseman, Brigade commander.

Gen. SU and his party arrived in the islands Saturday night and are scheduled to leave tomorrow. The Chinese officers are in Hawaii to become better acquainted with the operation of their United States counterpart Fleet Marine Force Pacific.

STATION HONORS GEN. McALISTER HERE NOV. 25th

Wednesday, Nov. 25, will be "Maj. Gen. McAlister Day" here at K-Bay.

Station personnel, led by Col. M. M. Magruder, MCAS commanding officer, have planned the day as a farewell honor for Gen. Francis M. McAlister, deputy commander of the Fleet Marine Force, Pacific.

The general leaves next month to assume new duties as commanding general, Department of the Pacific, San Francisco.

Gen. McAlister has served as FMFPac deputy commander since May, 1958. Prior to this he served as commanding general, Third Marine Division on Okinawa.

Highlighting the "Maj. Gen. McAlister Day" will be a parade and review conducted by Station personnel in his honor. The Dewey Square honors will begin at 11 a.m.

N.C., will succeed Maj. Gen. Munn as director of aviation.

Maj. Gen. William W. Stickney has assumed duties as director of the Marine Corps Reserve. He relieved Maj. Gen. Alan Shapley, who was earlier reassigned as commanding general, MCB, Camp Pendleton, Calif. Gen. Stickney formerly was deputy director of the Marine Corps Reserve.

Brig Gen. Harvey C. Tschirgi, formerly commanding general, Landing Force Training Unit, Pacific, Coronado, Calif., will be assigned as assistant chief of staff, G-4, HQMC.

Brig. Gen. Frank C. Tharin, now assistant commander of the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing, will assume command of the Wing as relief for Gen. Binney.

K-Bay Open Gate Policy Prevails At Special Events

Col. M. M. Magruder, commanding officer of the Marine Corps Air Station, has announced that the public is cordially invited to visit K-Bay to witness four major events to be held here this month.

In keeping with his policy of inviting the Marine Corps' windward neighbors and friends to special activities at K-Bay, Col. Magruder announced an Open Gate policy will prevail for the following:

Monday, Nov. 23, 4:30 p.m.—Personal appearance of Paul Hahn, trick shot wizard and one of golfing's most colorful personalities, at the K-Bay Klipper Course. Hahn has been featured at the Yankee Stadium, national celebrity events and practically every major tournament in the country, including the Masters in Augusta, National P. G. A. Championships and as master of ceremonies at the National Golf Show.

SUNSET PARADE

Monday, Nov. 23, 5:40 p.m.—Sunset Parade at Dewey Square. Members of the 3rd. Bn., 12th Marines will conduct this colorful ceremonial parade. The reviewing officer of the Cannoneers' parade will be Maj. Gen. F. L. Wieseman, commanding general of the 1st Marine Brigade. Lt. Col. B. H. Elliott commands the battalion.

CHANGE OF COMMAND

Monday, Nov. 30, 3:30 p.m.—1st Marine Brigade change of command ceremonies, Platt Field. All personnel of the Brigade, along with its equipment, will be paraded when Brig. Gen. R. G. Weede relieves Maj. F. L. Wieseman as commanding general. (In case of inclement weather, the change of command ceremonies will be held the following day).

SHOW OF STARS

Monday, Nov. 30, 7 & 8:45 p.m.—"Show of Stars" at Station Theater No. 1, features Jimmy Clanton, Sandy Nelson's Band, the Four Preps, Masaaki Hirao, Jan & Dean, Tom Moffat, the Royal Drifters and other favorites of the younger generation. Admission to the Special Services-sponsored show is 90 cents.

HAWAIIAN ROUNDUP ATTRACTS 16,000; SCHOFIELD SOLDIER WINS TOP AWARD

By AGYsgt. Jack Sheehan

Texas may bigger, but Hawaii has just had one of the finest, crowd-pleasing rodeos ever held.

An estimated 16,000 spectators jammed Truan Arena here at K-Bay to witness the two-day western event program last Saturday and Sunday.

Veteran rodeo performers and producers readily admitted that the 1959 Hawaiian Roundup surpassed all expectations. As a matter of fact, it was so outstanding that Col. M. M. Magruder, Station commander, and Grover A. Godfrey, Jr., rodeo general chairman, announced tentative plans for conducting an annual rodeo at the Station during the Labor Day weekend each year.

Contestants with amateur standings had no place in the Hawaiian Roundup. The stock provided by Henie Aruda, a Waimanalo stock contractor, was strictly for the experienced cowhands. Fiery horses and wild bulls all but tore the arena down. One of the busiest behind-the-scenes individuals was the rodeo carpenter who was kept busy repairing chutes and gates kicked apart by the stock.

BILL BREWER

The 1959 Hawaiian Roundup added a new twist to the nursery rhyme, "The Cow Jumped Over the Moon," out of ten bulls released from the chutes on Saturday during the bull riding event, six of them immediately dumped their riders and hurdled the secondary fences; they wanted no part of the rodeo.

Undoubtedly, the most outstanding figure in the entire rodeo was one of the clowns, Bill Brewer, a soldier from Schofield Barracks. He not only pleased the crowd with his antics, but won the bareback riding event, saddle bronc event, steer wrestling, and was named 1959 Hawaiian Roundup All Around Cowboy.

STATION ORDER OUTLINES INSURANCE SALES RULES

Station Order 1741.1A spells out local conditions under which commercial insurance companies and their agents may be allowed to solicit life insurance aboard the Station.

It is interesting to note that the Order carefully screens agents, their companies and their methods of solicitation. This is done for the benefit of potential life insurance customers stationed here.

"Captive Audience" solicitation, for instance, is strictly prohibited. Insurance solicitation will be on an individual basis, preferably by appointment only, so as not to interfere with any military duties.

Remuneration or gifts of any nature will not be offered, or accepted by, military or civilian personnel employed by the Department of the Navy to facilitate transactions. Sharp practices such as those involving rebates or elimination of full competition, will not be permitted.

The Order also points out that military personnel on active duty are expressly prohibited from representing any insurance company for the solicitation and sale of commercial insurance on any installation, with or without compensation.

Responsible for the counseling of Station personnel in pay grades E-1, E-2 and E-3 concerning the purchase of insurance prior to initiating insurance allotments is the Station Insurance Officer. He has to OK insurance allotment requests by these three pay grades before disbursing will act on them.

Counseling for Station personnel above these three pay grades is also available on an optional basis. Appointments with the Station Insurance officer may be made by calling 72-061.

For additional information, consult Station Order 1741.1A.

Leave the Marine Exchange Out When Doing a Neighborly Favor

Cities and States, when they need additional revenue, invariably resort to hiking taxes on cigarettes and other so-called luxury items. Does this affect service people who do much of their buying at exchanges and commissaries? It certainly does.

We all have friends or neighbors in civilian life. We're used to doing them small favors just as we don't hesitate to ask favors of them. It's the pattern of our living—being the good sport, never too busy to go out of our way to help someone out.

All well and good. But when it extends to letting people in on our exchange and commissary benefits it's carrying affability too far. What's so heinous, you ask, about picking up a couple of cartons of butts for a good friend or for that likeable civilian employee who's always ready with a helping hand?

What's wrong about it is simply that you're jeopardizing the whole exchange-commissary structure which operates to serve you and your dependents—nobody else. It is not competitive with retail business. It is a benefit exclusive to you as a member of the Armed Forces. It is part of your pay, and no civilian acquaintance, whatever his endearing qualities, has a built-in demand on the returns you get from the U.S. for services rendered.

Don't ever feel like a cheap skate in politely rebuffing people who want to use this privilege of yours as a convenience. Most of them, if you remind them of why it exists and how urgently it must be protected from abuse, will feel no resentment. (AFPS)

Marines' Pictorial History Published

A Marine Corps civilian historian, Lynn Montross, is the author of a comprehensive new pictorial history of the Leathernecks titled "The United States Marines — A Pictorial History," published by Rinehart and Co.

The first pictorial documentation of the Marines to include Korea, the book contains 434 illustrations with text, drawn from some 100 different sources.

Montross, a member of the Historical Branch at Headquarters Marine Corps, is editor and co-author of the five-volume official history, "U.S. Marine Operations in Korea." (AFPS)

"THANKSGIVING"

Thanksgiving is distinctly an American holiday; there is nothing like it elsewhere in the world. It celebrates neither a savage battle nor the fall of a great city. It does not mark the anniversary of a great conqueror or the birthday of a famous statesman. It does not commemorate the writing of a historic public document or the launching of a new constitution.

The American Thanksgiving Day is the expression of a deep feeling of gratitude by our people for the rich productivity of the land, a memorial of the dangers and hardships through which we have safely passed, and a fitting recognition of all that God in His goodness has bestowed upon us. At least this is the reason the day is set aside each year by presidential proclamation.

To be sure, Thanksgiving also means many other things. It is a holiday from work and school. Even the mail won't go through. It is a time for family reunions and telephone calls across the miles. The traditional turkey dinner with all the trimmings will grace many a table. Special football games will be played. Huge parades will announce the coming of Christmas in many cities.

But on this most American festival let us not forget the religious reason for its existence. As the scripture warns us: "Beware lest thou forget all the way the Lord thy God had led thee" (Deut. 6:12).

Jesus told the story of the ten lepers. They asked to be healed and they were cleansed. But only one "turned back, praising God with a loud voice. Then Jesus said, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine?"

Samuel Leibowitz, the famous criminal lawyer saved seventy-eight men from the electric chair. How many took the trouble to thank their deliverer? None.

Do we take God for granted and treat casually the gifts of love that He has bestowed?

To some the important thing about this Thanksgiving will be that they have no cranberries to go with their turkey. Better we have Thanksgiving without cranberries than Thanksgiving without God!

Reservations for our dinner dance, Nov. 28, are coming in rapidly! Do remember that they are limited. If you have not made yours, please call very soon or you may be left just wishing. Noon, Nov. 25, is the deadline and once again, the numbers to phone are: Miriam Hudson, 72-688 or Jean Ernst, 25-4021.

The Club has sent circulars to all units, where all officers will have a chance to see the information. Even the B. O. Q. is graced with an attractive poster.

Forgot to mention that our filet mignon dinner will be preceded by a cocktail hour from 7 p.m. to 8— and also that dessert will be coconut cream pie.

Simply got off on a cloud by the vision of all the pretty dresses floating around the dance floor.

We just know this will be a memorable aloha for General and Mrs. Wieseman and for General and Mrs. Weede, as well as a lovely beginning to the holiday season.

The Inquiring Photographer

By PFC EDWARD BOMAR

Thanksgiving Day is next Thursday, a time when Americans across the nation will pause and appraise their blessings. What will you be most thankful for?

ASGT. W. H. OSBORNE, 12th Marines — "I'm thankful that my wife is finally over here with me, and that as section chief with 105 howitzers, I'm doing a job I really like."

MAJ. T. D. HESS, CO, Hq. Co., 1stMarBrig. — "I think it is a blessing to be stationed here in Hawaii with an opportunity to prosper, physically and mentally, in these wonderful surroundings. I am also grateful for my present tour with the 1st Marine Brigade, which is the most enjoyable duty I've had so far in the Corps."

STLT. R. E. HAVERKAMP, MAG-13 Supply Officer — "I'm grateful, first and foremost, for the continuing peace throughout most of the world. On the personal side, I'm thankful for a year of good health, being here in Hawaii, and for a job which I enjoy."

HM3 R. L. SAUER, Medical Section, 4th Marines — "Personally, I'm thankful for this year's relative peace, for being here in Hawaii doing a job I like, and to God for an opportunity to worship Him."

ASSGT. A. L. DEMETROPOULOS, Service Bn. — "I've only been here about a month, and I believe my greatest thanks are for being here with my family after a wonderful trip over from the mainland. I'm looking forward to three more years for which I'll be grateful, too."

PFC F. A. CORLEY, F-2-4 — "I'm grateful for the fact that God is still giving me the opportunity to be alive, to be happily married, and to be in a country where I can worship Him in the way that I please."

The Legal Beagle Says:

When You Buy Be Businesslike

When going on liberty most Marines prefer to ride rather than walk. Here at Kaneohe Bay public transportation is limited, and most Marines want to own their own cars.

If you plan to buy a car, there are several simple rules, which, if you follow them, will keep you out of trouble.

1. Be sure you know how much you can afford to pay for a car. Remember there will be interest fees, carrying charges, and insurance fees added to the cost of the automobile.

2. Be sure you understand clearly the agreement you are making with the seller of the car.

3. Be sure the entire agreement is in writing. Do not rely on verbal assurances of the seller. If assurances are made, have them put in writing.

4. DO NOT SIGN BLANK PAPERS of any sort for any reason.

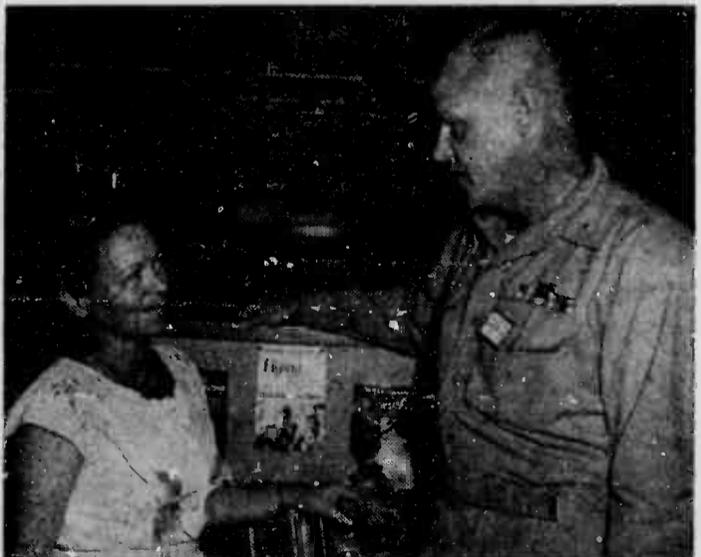

5. Make payments on your car promptly.

6. If you don't understand a contract, bring it to a legal assistance officer (a lawyer) for explanation before you sign it. In fact, bring it in anyway. Any reputable dealer will be happy for you to do so.

Nearly every day some Marine or sailor on this base finds out to his sorrow that in failing to obey one of the above rules he has gotten himself in a jam, which has cost him money and possibly even his car.

Actually what is said above about the purchase of a car applies equally to the purchase of any appliance or other merchandise. Common sense and good business practice should be your guide.

(This is the first in a series of articles that will appear in the WINDWARD MARINE periodically to advise K-Bayites in legal matters.)

NEW LIBRARIAN — Mrs. Mona Hobson, a professional librarian with 11 years' experience in the field, chats with Lt. Col. R. V. Friedrich, Special Services officer, about her new job, which she began last week. Mrs. Hobson spent 11 years in Japan directing military libraries for the Army and Air Force. She will be directing operations in the Station Library from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., Monday through Friday,

'Build 2 Marines' 2 Girls Ask Navy

A letter postmarked Magnolia, Ohio, and addressed to the Secretary of the Navy informs him that "two single, very eligible girls" are in the market for a couple of Marines.

It is their understanding, they say, that "the Marine Corps builds men. If this is true, we were wondering if you could build us a couple, preferably tall, handsome, single (of course), good sense of humor, sweet disposition, good health, and, above all, a good personality."

If their request receives favorable attention from the Navy Secretary, the letter points out, "complete specifications" will be forwarded.

"We thought since the Marine Corps is building men, they wouldn't mind building a couple of extra for us . . . if our request is granted, we won't breathe a word to anyone. It will be a 'military secret!'" the letter concludes.

Christmas Mailing Deadlines Near; Late Packages Mean Higher Fees

Have you finished your Christmas gift mailing? If you haven't, you had better hurry because if you wait it's going to put a bigger dent in your battered Yuletide budget.

Here's the reason.

Compared to the 80 cents per pound tab for air parcel post to any point in the United States, the zone rate on regular parcel post is a money-saving bargain.

PARCEL POST DEADLINES

Information received this week from Brigade and Station postal officials list deadlines for mailing of packages by regular parcel post with a reasonable expectation that they will arrive at their destination before Christmas.

Deadline for regular parcel post packages destined for Alaska, western Canada, Tahiti and Taiwan is today, Nov. 20. The deadline Nov. 17 for eastern Canada has already passed.

Other deadlines for the mailing of regular parcel post package from here are as follows: Eastern States, Nov. 27; Southern States, Dec. 2; Western, Northwestern and Midwestern States, Dec. 3; Southern California, Dec. 2; Northern California, Dec. 7; Los Angeles, Dec. 8 and San Francisco, Dec. 15.

FOREIGN DELIVERIES

Deadline for parcel post to foreign ports is as follows: Australia, Dec. 2; New Zealand, Dec. 2; Guam, Nov. 21; Hong Kong, Nov. 24; Japan, Nov. 24; Manila, Nov. 24; Wake Island, Nov. 21 and Fiji, Dec. 2.

K-Bay personnel are also reminded that a "one stop" postal unit and free gift wrapping service is located in the Bldg. 1090 Marine Exchange Branch, in a room adjacent to the furniture department.

This unit is in operation weekdays until 3:30 p.m. and on Saturdays until noon. Members of the Staff NCO Wives Club and the Officers Wives Club have volunteered their time and effort for the gift wrapping service.

BRIGADE RADAR SYSTEM TESTED

Kaneohe's two Fury jet squadrons, VMA-212 and 214 evaluated the Brigade's aircraft detection and intercept system during a two-day exercise on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The two attack squadrons were designated as "enemy" aircraft for the purpose of the exercise.

MAG-13's third squadron, VMF-232 operated as the "friendly" protective forces.

Marine Air Control Squadron 2, the Brigade's aircraft early warning unit, was displaced to three locations aboard the air station. The unit's counter air operation center was situated at Pyramid Rock.

An Early Warning site was positioned atop the rim of 683-foot Ulupau crater, and a secondary counter air operations center was established at Pennsylvania Battery at the rifle range.

Fury jets of the two "enemy" squadrons took off early last Wednesday morning and rendezvoused south of Oahu prior to making "attacks" on "targets" on Oahu and Molokai.

As the approaching "enemy" aircraft were detected by MACS-2 air defense system, the supersonic Crusaders of VMF-23 were scrambled, and flew out to sea to intercept and "destroy" the attacking enemy forces.

CAPEHART FURNITURE ISSUE GOVERNED BY NEW DIRECTIVE

Information on the policy for assignment of furniture to occupants of Capehart Housing is contained in Station Bulletin 4340 published last Friday.

Effective immediately, each prospective Capehart occupant will be required to utilize personally-owned furniture which would otherwise be placed in non-temporary storage at the time of occupancy.

Where the prospective occupant does not own a sufficient quantity of furniture for full outfitting of the unit, government-owned furniture may be issued to assist in meeting the need. The quantity of government-owned furniture, however, shall in no case exceed 70 per cent of the full outfitting requirement for the unit assigned.

TERMS DEFINED

"Full outfitting" is defined as that quantity of furniture indicated on the typical inventory lists which are available at the Station Housing Office in Bldg. 455.

Administration of the 70 per cent issue will incorporate a point system whereby individual line items of furniture will be assigned a relative valuation based upon "present availability" and "initial cost" for each line item of furniture.

POLICY BACKGROUND

Here is the background on the policy. The Defense Department authorized funds to furnish only 70 per cent of the total number of all Capehart units, including those at K-Bay. This was based on current statistics which show that 30 per cent of personnel prefer using their personal household effects.

In addition, the Chief of Naval Operations concluded that in forward areas, such as K-Bay, where station housing can be obtained only after long waiting periods, personnel are required to ship their personal household effects because of lack of off-station furnished units. It is therefore reasonable to assume that household effects which are good enough to be shipped at government expense are good enough to be used in government quarters.

FIGURES TELL STORY

At K-Bay, approximately 144 of the 650 Capehart units were occupied by 72 officers and 72 Staff NCO's as of Nov. 1. The furniture requested by these personnel averaged between 85 and 90 per cent of allowable inventories for each unit. If furniture requested by prospective occupants were to continue at this rate, the supply of furniture would be exhausted prior to completion of all units.

This would mean that no furniture would be available to personnel assigned the last units completed.

HMR-161 Major Aids Development Of Rescue Device

A short time ago, the newspapers were full of accounts of a successful experiment in a new air-sea rescue system in which a low-flying plane engages a nylon line suspended from a helium-filled balloon. Attached to the end of the nylon line was GySgt. Levi W. Woods, the first man in history to be picked up from the ground by a high performance aircraft in flight.

The new air-sea rescue system evaluation was tested at Quantico, Va., when Woods was plucked from the ground by a P2V Neptune, traveling at 125 knots at an altitude of about 500 feet.

A Marine officer who had much to do with the successful experiment, is now attached to HMR-161. He's Maj. Stan Osserman, safety officer for the helicopter squadron. The major was the coordinator at the first attempt utilizing the new system.

To execute a pick-up, the rescue plane drops a kit containing 500 feet of nylon line with an inflatable balloon attached to one end and a lift harness to the other, to the man on the ground who is to be rescued.

The man on the ground inflates the balloon from a helium cartridge and releases it after strapping himself into the lift harness. The rescue aircraft then intercepts the suspended line in its yoke mounted on the nose or wing of the rescue aircraft. The man is then winched up into the plane.

Hawaiian Roundup Thrills, Spills

GRAND ENTRY — Following the grand entry parade of the 1959 Hawaiian Roundup, a mounted color guard, right, moves into the arena followed by Queen Lillas Cambra, her four princesses, and a stage coach. Riding in the stage coach were Maj. Gen. and Mrs. F. L. Wieseman, Col. and Mrs. M. M. Magruder, Father James Conte, Capt. Vincent M. Ernst, Jr., and Capt. R. W. Arsenault. When the coach reached the center of the arena, the distinguished guests and Navy Relief officials were introduced to the thousands of spectators by Capt. Arsenault.

SADDLE SORE — Navy LCdr. Win Junk, left, "chute boss," congratulates "Wild Bill" Hiscock, a K-Bay Marine upon his selection as the cowboy who contributed most to the rodeo. Both cowhands belonged on the no duty roster following the rodeo. Junk was hit by a bull early Sunday morning, and Hiscock was injured on both rodeo days.

END OF RIDE — A cowhand is about to bite the dust as his bareback bronc decides this is the end of the line. Contestants during the two-day western event program found the wild stock just a little too fiery to handle.

take second place honors in the team roping event.

The entire rodeo was truly a success according to rodeo officials. Perfect weather prevailed throughout the two-day event. It was a vendor's dream. On Saturday, about an hour after the show got underway, hamburgers, hot dogs, corn on the cob and soft drinks were completely sold out. Trucks began shuttling between the Station and surrounding cities and towns, hauling in additional food. On Sunday, it was the same story.

Like any other sport someone has to win, and there has to be losers, too. In the rodeo business, it's the same. Anyone who has ever participated in a contest knows the joy of winning, but there's also the heartbreak of losing.

One of the hardest working cowboys throughout the roundup failed to win any of the events, but he did win a spot in the heart of the thousands of spectators who observed him. "Wild Bill" Hiscock, a Kaneohe Marine, spent many long hard hours preparing for the rodeo. During the first day out he painfully injured himself during the bull riding event. His bull left the chute and headed straight for the arena fence, slamming Bill against the protective barrier. "Wild Bill" still refused to quit despite his injuries.

During the presentation ceremonies Sunday night at the Pali Palms, Bill was in for a surprise. He was named the "cowboy who had contributed most to the rodeo." He received a certificate entitling him to a new set of cowboy togs.

In summing the rodeo up Sunday night, rodeo officials had only one comment to make. "If you think this year's rodeo was good, wait until you see the one next year."

RIDE 'EM COWBOY — Gentleman Jim, a Brahma bull, bucks from the chute with a rider momentarily on his back, but not for long. During Saturday's bull riding event, not one cowboy was able to stay aboard the bull for the eight second qualifying time.

HOLIDAY BENEFITS FOR JULY 3, 1959

Public Law 86-326 provides for holiday benefits to civil service employees when a holiday falls on Saturday. This law was approved Sept. 22, 1959, but was retroactively effective to July 1, 1959. As a result of the retroactive feature of the law, it was necessary to recompute holiday benefits for July 3, 1959. This recomputation has been completed and, in those cases where applicable was reflected in the pay checks distributed on Nov. 19. The recomputation effected only those employees who worked on July 3.

ELECTION TIME AGAIN

It's time to start thinking about your candidates for the Civilian Recreation and Welfare Association Board of Governors for the coming year.

Each bulletin board will have posted on it a list of employees in that particular area who are eligible to be nominated. Station Bulletin 12065 which will be distributed to each employee sets forth procedures of election and provides a nomination petition.

A minimum of five signatures is required to make the nomination valid and individuals submitting the petitions should have the concurrence of the employee concerned to be certain he desires to accept the nomination.

Nominations of candidates will end on Dec. 4 and elections will be held on Dec. 17.

CREDIT UNION NEWS

Sweeping revisions in the Federal Credit Union Act were authorized in a bill approved by President Eisenhower. Credit Unions now have the opportunity to increase the service to members. These long sought revisions will modernize methods and enable members to receive benefits in keeping with present day business operations.

Outstanding changes include a boost in the maximum unsecured loan limit from $400 to $750 and extension in the maximum loan maturity limit from three to five years.

MCAS Federal Credit Union will follow these new practices as soon as they are adopted by the Board of Directors and appropriate By-Law revisions are made.

BOWLING HIGHLIGHTS

As the MCAS Mixed Trio League goes into its second round, coveted first place is held by the Bobcats (Major Wilson, A. Shafer, John Cambra). Tied for second place are the Sleepers (R. Hutton, F. Jenkins, L. Mendes) and the Jokers (R. Foeglar, John Kim, Al Oliveria). Ray Tanaka currently leads the league in high average honors with 167.

BREAK IT DOWN!

You may have heard or read about the man who felt that he took too much time to shave in the morning and decided to do something about it. What he did was apply the BREAKDOWN METHOD to his morning chore.

He made a list of every step in the shaving ritual and the amount of time each step required. He was surprised to find that he "wasted" almost three minutes in scratching his head and rubbing his eyes, that he "lost" another 30 seconds looking for his razor. By eliminating, simplifying and combining some of the details, he cut his shaving time to 1 minute 57 seconds flat.

Most of the people who receive awards in any suggestion system agree that many of their ideas are not masterpieces of inspiration. But neither are they flash ideas with no constructive thinking behind them.

The BREAKDOWN METHOD will help you to think up suggestions. List every detail of the job exactly as it is done, including the handling of materials, machine work and hand work. Then see if you can rebuild it in such a way that the job can be done efficiently and at less cost than before.

When you decide there is an improved way to do the job, only one thing remains. That is SUGGEST IT.

TABLE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The Civilian Recreation and Welfare Association announces its 1959-60 Table Tennis (or Ping Pong, if you will) Tournament is now open for entries.

Committee members Henry Lung, Fred Lung, and George Yee have set Dec. 15 as deadline for receipt of entries. Employees interested in participating in this fun tournament should telephone Fred Young, 72-020. Schedule for play will be published soon after close of entries. All tournament play will be held at the PW Electric Shop during the lunch hour and is tentatively scheduled to begin on January 11.

NOTE TO FISHERMEN: Have you reported your contest catch? Fishing Derby closes Nov. 29.

MORE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS CONCERNING HEALTH BENEFITS PROGRAM

Q. Should I apply for the health benefits now?
A. No. The health benefits will not begin until the first pay period after June 30, 1960. Before that date, you will be given full information and you will have plenty of time to apply.

Q. If I drop the health benefits coverage I now have, would my eligibility to join the Government-sponsored program next July be affected?
A. No. However, the safest thing is to continue your present health benefits plan until you come under the Government-sponsored program. In this way you will have continuous protection.

Theater Schedule

TONIGHT

LAST OF THE FAST GUNS—This played here not too long ago and pleased a good number of the adventure seeking patrons. It is in color and Jock Mahoney is the individual who is incredibly fast with his guns. Gilbert Roland, Lorne Green and pretty Linda Cristal supply a touch of romance. A good evening out for the family and total running time adds up to 97 minutes.

SATURDAY MATINEE

No information available.

SATURDAY

ROCK PRETTY BABY — A teenager's delight with the likeable Sal Mineo heading the cast. Naturally, this has its greatest appeal growing out of the high school set so let the cards fall as they may for 96 minutes.

SUNDAY MATINEE

No information available.

SUNDAY

DOCTOR'S DILEMMA — This is a faithful picturization of one of George Bernard Shaw's earlier plays that has a fine cast, impeccable production values, outstanding color and it all adds up to a mild, slow-moving flicker. Leslie Caron isn't up to par in this because it is mostly art house fare but Dick Bogarde, Robert Morley and Alastair Sim play their regular parts. In 1906, when the play was written, it was considered daring because of its cynical comments concern the medical profession. It is a comedy drama and only for the adults of the family. 93 minutes of relaxing enjoyment.

MONDAY

CITY OF FEAR — Vince Edwards, Patricia Blair and Steven Ritch take the leading roles in the crime drama concerning the prisoners who escape from San Quentin with what they believe is heroin and finally come to discover that the "H" is some radioactive material and they are in deep. 92 minutes of spine tingling drama.

TUESDAY

CRIMSON KIMONO — With the feature role of this flicker belonging to a local boy, James Shi-

Adm. E. A. Solomons, Comin-dant of the 14th Naval District, will present diplomas to forty Navy Relief Society women volunteers at 2 p.m. Monday. The ceremony will take place at the Officers Club Lower Lanai.

The diplomas will signify completion of a course on the workings of the Society. The course was conducted by Miss Barbara Blair, field representative from Washington, D.C.

Several volunteer women will also receive pins in recognition of 100 hours or more of Navy Relief work.

Col. M. M. Magruder, president of the Kaneohe Branch of the Society will welcome special guests who will include Maj.Gen. F. L. Wieseman, Mrs. Wornham, Mrs. McAlister, Capt. James W. Kelly, 14th Naval District Chaplain, Col.

and Mrs. P. J. Fontana, Col. and Mrs. Thrash, and Col. and Mrs. John Antohell.

Mrs. F. L. Wieseman, chairman of volunteer women, will pin 100 hour recipients. Col. Magruder will present special awards.

Father James W. Conte will deliver the invocation and Chaplain K. W. Carlson will give the Benediction.

Prior to the program, musical selections will be played by the 1st Marine Brigade Band.

All husbands of the graduates have been invited to witness the diploma and award presentations.

Graduates include the following: Carol Anderson; Doris Andruska; Elaine Angle; Lorraine Angus; Lillian Antonelli; Jane Baird; Diane Balay; Jean Barnes; Carolyn Beckner and Helen Brown.

Also Jan Chetavian, Evelyn Fleck, Fran Gibson, Barbara Hertler, Catherine Howerton, Jean Hugus, Margaret King, Amber McMahon, Frances McCullen and Louise Moore.

Also Ann Morgan, Dot Mottl, Bonnie Nevill, Ruth Oblinger, Mary Ann O'Neal, Ruth Opp, Dorothy Rainey, Ann Reeves, Lou Reid and Virginia Ritter.

Also Virginia Roebuck, Doris Lee Russ, Mary Saye, Dolores Saylor, Erin Schmidt, Eleanor Small, Val Street, Polly Swenson, Dennis Tolle and Claire Valentine.

HERE IN PERSON — Waitress Debbie Reynolds holds the star of the Thanksgiving Day dinner. Mr. Turkey will be here in person, on the tables at Mess Hall No. 2, next Thursday from 2 to 5 p.m. Debbie regrets that she can't be here to do the serving.

1st Bn., 4th Mar. Keep League Lead In 6-Man Football

K-Bay's 1st Bn., 4th Marines, whipped Camp H. M. Smith 32-28 to retain the Hawaii Marine six man football league leader's position.

The long range running of R. L. Davis and the kicking ability of D. R. Kozakiewicz led the Windward team to another victory while handing Smith its second defeat of the season.

Smith scored in the first quarter after the K-Bay squad fumbled but the team from Regiment didn't let them go undaunted. At the end of the first quarter the score stood 16-6 in favor of the Kaneohe group.

R. J. Dianno, fast moving half-back for the Kaneohe team moved down field in the second quarter only to be carried off the field with an injured ankle. He is back into good shape now and will be playing during the next stint.

The Alea team fumbled during the second quarter and R. E. Lamb recovered the ball and moved toward paydirt. It was about a 55 yard run which increased the K-Bay lead by another six points.

Just before half-time Camp Smith's backfield faked a kick and took to the air. A long pass was thrown and right into the arms of J. A. Biever for an interception. He made it into the end zone and at half-time the score stood, 32-14 in favor of the Windward team. It was the last score made by 1st Bn. 4th Marines during the game.

Camp Smith scored after that but couldn't get up enough power to beat the stalwart infantrymen.

The fourth and final quarter was filled with lazy plays and fumbling as both teams were beat.

The extra points scored by D. R. Kozakiewicz brought the higher score to the Kaneohe men and therefore can be classified as the winning factor.

1st Bn., 4th Marines will defend its first place position this afternoon at 3 p.m. when it locks horns with Service Bn., last year's defending champions.

HOUDINI OF GOLFDOM—Paul Hahn, golf wizard, demonstrates one of his most difficult shots in that he hits a series of twelve balls, all lined up, with a club in each hand, alternating right and left handed shots without stopping. The great Hahn will show his stuff at the Klipper Links, Monday at 4:30 p.m. The show is free, the public is invited and it is all done from one spot so there will be no walking for the gallery.

Hickam Here Tonight MARINE FIVE WINS OPENER AGAINST SERVPAC, 77-58

The defending champion Hawaii Marines Basketball team kicked off their 1959 season with a 77-58 victory over the ServPac "Packers" at Pearl Harbor's Bloch Arena Monday night before a sparse crowd of enthusiastic spectators.

This was the opening game of the season in the Hawaiian Armed Forces Senior Invitation League. The Leathernecks copped 23 wins of the 25 League games last season for their second straight victory.

Monday night, newcomer Cosel Walker, the 6'6" rebounder for the Hawaii Marines garnered 16 points to lead the Marines in their onslaught, but trailed behind the Packers' Jack Yates who stripped the nets for 23 points and game honors.

The game started cautiously as the score was tied 2-2 after four and a half minutes of play but the Leathernecks pulled ahead for a slight 27-24 edge at half time.

Yates had dropped 11 of the 24 points for ServPac by half time to lead the scoring at that point. He also dropped the tying basket shortly after the start of the second half as they tied it up 28-28.

The Leathernecks seemed to gather steam after the half time session in the locker room and soon pulled away from the Packers, never to be closed upon.

Former Holy Cross cager, George Waddleton flipped six field goals and a free toss through the pay-nets for 13 points as did his team-mate Jim Smith, formerly of Villanova, who stripped the nets with four field brackets.

ServPac's Jack Stromberg copped 11 points, mostly on free tosses and the Leatherneck's Dave Smalley and Don Smith hit the double number bracket with 10 each.

The Hawaii Marines will meet their second foe of the season tonight on their home Kaneohe court at 8 p.m. against Hickham Air Force Base. The gym is located in hangar 103 at MCAS.

KEGLER KORNER

The Vanguards with a 20-win, 3-loss record are currently holding top spot in the Staff NCO Wives' Club

The Flame-outs and the Kaneohe Keglers are tied for 2nd place with 16 wins and 12 losses as the league goes into its second round of scheduled play.

High average among this 40-member women's league is currently held by Pat Saunders with a 160. Barney Brown's 509 and Nancy Lynn's 188 lead the awards in the high series and high game classes, with Helen Wayne holding a high series with handicap of 592 and Betty Lou Spring high game with a handicap of 230. League play begins at 10 each Wednesday morning at the MCAS Kaneohe Lanes.

BALL AND CHAIN LEAGUE
After eight weeks of bowling the CHAIN GANG still has been able to hold on to its first place position, followed by the LOHI and the SADDLESONS in that order.

Paul Hahn, Golfing Wizard Gives Demonstration Mon.

Island golf fans are in for a treat Monday, Nov. 23 at 4:30 p.m., with the personal appearance of Paul Hahn, trick shot wizard and the most outstanding personality in golfdom.

Col. M. M. Magruder, Station Commander, announced that Hahn would appear at the Klipper links at the station, and that the public was cordially invited to attend the exhibition.

Paul Hahn, who has been seen in a number of movie sport subjects, has a repertoire of more than 30 incredible trick shots. He combines a serious golf clinic (sane) and his trick shot exhibition (insane) with a hilarious series of fast-moving gags in a comedy routine put together for him by Hollywood gag writers.

A former player on the PGA Tournament circuit, Hahn discovered that there was more money to be made from entertaining than from playing the game seriously. His 90 pound golf bag is the world's largest and contains the weirdest assortment of clubs in captivity. While some are orthodox, others are not, like the regular driver head with a garden hose shaft. Paul has hit a golf ball 230 yards with this one.

Other shots include hitting three balls at once, one goes backward, one goes forward and the other goes straight up. He catches this one before it hits the ground. Hitting unusual shots with regular clubs and regular shots with unorthodox clubs, Hahn leaves his audience gasping with amazement, the phenomenal distance he gets with each drive defies belief.

Paul states that his most difficult shot is the "double action" shot. In this shot, he hits a series of twelve balls, all lined up, with a club in each hand, alternating right and left handed shots without stopping.

Driving a ball off a tee, held in the mouth of an assistant or volunteer, solidly attests to his steely-nerved control which has astounded audiences on six continents, in 31 countries and in practically every state in the Union.

Camera fans are invited to bring their cameras out and have a field day photographing Hahn's unusual talent. Non-golfers as well as links addicts will enjoy the show's entertainment and since the entire show is done from one spot, there will be no walking for the gallery.

Devil Pups Beat Waimanalo 6-0

Kaneohe Bay's Pop Warner grid-iron monsters emerged victorious over Waimanalo last weekend with a 6-0 score.

It was the opinion of many spectators that the game should have been completely and totally the Marines.

Jerry Cody, fast moving quarterback for the "crimson and gold," made the first and only score of the game during the first quarter of play.

Waimanalo had the ball deep into Marine territory when they fumbled and Tom "Tiger" Sheehan recovered the spheroid and kept the opponents from scoring. This was the town club's only scoring threat throughout the game.

Jim VanderMate and Tommy Dees were noted for playing outstanding ball. The two backfield men averaged about four yards each time they got their hands on the ball.

Tomorrow the Marines will pit their forces against Kalantanaole at the Ala Wai Field at 10 a.m.

The Marine squad is now sporting a two win and two loss record.

CONQUEROR A. JOHNSON CHAMPION OF CHAMPIONS

The Hawaii Marines Boxing Team is about to suffer one of its biggest losses. Amos Johnson, stellar light heavyweight on the Marine Squad leaves Monday for the Mainland and future separation from the Corps.

Amos is the holder, at the present time, of the Pan American, All Marine, All Service, Far East, Hawaiian Interservice, Hawaiian All Marine and Hawaiian AAU light heavyweight titles. He also claims the Diamond Belt title from California.

He started his ring experience in Stockton, Calif., in 1952 at the tender age of 14. He ran up a string of 12 wins in a row before receiving a setback. Amos still sports a scar over his left eye from his first beating.

He has lost only one match since 1952. This was an overweight bout in which Amos fought heavyweight in 1958, two years after entering the Corps.

The latest title copped by Johnson was won in Chicago during the Pan American games held in September of this year. While boxing in the "games" he met opponents from Chile, Brazil, Nicaragua and his final bout was with a hard fighter from Argentina.

Johnson is a natural southpaw and his left hook has been the giant-killer that has earned him his long string of titles.

Johnson has been steadily working out in preparation for the Junior National AAU Bouts which take place in Hawaii early next month, but, a change of orders has him leaving here Nov. 23 and cancels his chances of taking another title back to the Mainland.

After leaving the service around the first of the year, he plans to enter the professional ranks under the tutelage of Archie Moore, present light-heavyweight champion of the world.

SHOOTERS CORNER

ActSSgt. W. K. Jones of 3rd Bn., 12th Marines took first place in the Expert Classification of the State High Power Rifle match held at Schofield Barracks last weekend. Jones fired a 239x250. Congratulations are given to the whole team who turned in some fine scores.

All pistol shooters are being notified as to the 14th Naval District pistol match which is slated for tomorrow morning. Registrations are at 7 a.m. The match will be held at the Hawaii National Guard Pistol Range, Diamond Head Crater. Matches begin promptly at 8 a.m.

This is a Special Services function so all personnel attending are requested to notify their unit Special Services officer.

The Honolulu Police Pistol match will be held Sunday, Dec. 6 at the Police Pistol Range. The 1st Marine Brigade Pistol Team will be on TAD orders to attend this meet. It is a 1500 aggregate shot match. All unclassified shooters will be required to fire in the expert class.

All potential shooters are reminded of the intramural match which begins next week. Practice sessions will be held on Nov. 23 and 24 and the actual shooting will take place on the 25th and 27th. All shooting starts promptly at 7 a.m. on the dates indicated. Contact your battalion team captains for information on these shoots.

There has been quite a bit of confusion concerning Brigade Order 3592.2 which pertains to the already established Brigade Rifle and Pistol Team. This order was written so that commanding officers will encourage and allow named members to practice.

Any questions concerning intramural shooting can be answered by calling ActGySgt. A. Rocha at 72-067.

ROD AND GUN CLUB NEWS

Fishing around the pier has picked up considerably in the past two weeks.

Mike Whitmer and F. J. Blesser did some fishing Sunday morning around the pier and had only accounted for a few fish. In desperation Blesser used a red and white spoon and with his first cast hung a Papio on the line. Naturally, Mike followed suit and with his first cast got hold of two Papio's on two lures simultaneously. Using an 8 lb. test line he couldn't put to much pressure on the line without breaking it. Needless to say, he had a battle before the two were netted.

The ponds have also come up with some action. Many "ten" pounders have been claimed and they seem to be striking everything from artificial lures to live bait. MSgt. R. T. Lawson, C. C. Pinkston and J. L. Ferrero have been pulling them in on fly rods and flies.

Please call ASgt. F. J. Blesser at 73-342 with any information concerning large catches made on the base, or any information about the Rod and Gun Club.

AKU MARINES

According to reports, a good many fish and lobsters have been taken from water surrounding the air station.

A SCUBA dive is planned off the island of Molokai next month. The dive is limited to 15 members and is slated to leave here Dec. 4, spend all day Saturday, Dec. 5 diving and return to home port on Dec. 6.

Names will be taken at the next meeting for all who wish to attend.

The AKU MARINES will start using their new meeting place, the quonset hut in front of the Navy boathouse, next Monday.

NEVER DIVE WHEN SICK OR WITH A COLD

Topic of discussion for Monday's meeting will be a lecture on sharks given by Dr. Albert Tester from the University of Hawaii. The meeting will start at 7 p.m. sharp.

The club is planning to have a lecture every meeting concerning some phase of diving.

An open invitation has been given to anyone interested in diving to join the club.

RIFLE AND PISTOL CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the Rifle and Pistol Club was held Tuesday evening. Plans for the big rifle match in the Spring of the year were discussed and revisions to the constitution and by-laws prepared.

The next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 8. Election of officers for 1960 will be first on the agenda of business to be taken up at this meeting.

Recreational shooting will take place Saturday at 1 p.m.

JUNIOR RIFLE CLUB

The basic small-arms course will begin at 10 a.m. tomorrow with hoot-who have not attended this course previously are expected to participate. Safety, weapons, ammunition, types of shooting, scoring and other subjects will be presented during this course.

NICK'S NICHE

by
DICK NICKLIN

Now that the Hawaii Marines have the opening game under their belt, this week we'll wrap up the individual backgrounds on the hoopsters so that we can get under way with the regular season coverage and touch on some other sports.

As it turns out we still have the newcomers to tell the readers about so we'll start with Bill Allen, Jr. who is a former four year varsity star from Colgate. Bill won a basketball scholarship to that school, being named to the Up-State New York All-Star Team and having garnered Honorable Mention, All-American High School. He calls Ft. Lauderdale, Florida his home.

Dave Smalley dribbles down the Hawaii Marine courts this year for the first time, fresh from two years with the Quantico squad where he was a member of last season's All-Marine Champs. He is a veteran of three years court service at the Naval Academy. While there he played in the East-West All-Star Game in 1957 and was named to the All-District NCAA as well as Honorable Mention All-American.

Don Smith spent two years with the San Diego cagers before making his debut with the Hawaii Marines this season. He formerly played two years at Olympic College and a year at the University of Washington. He won scholarships in basketball to both schools.

Bill Haywood, the Hawaii Marine mound star last season, hangs up his spikes and dons sneakers to join this year's cagers. Bill played basketball in his home town of Glen Burnie, Md. and also with the First Marine Air Wing while stationed in Japan. If he shows as well on the boards as he did on first base and on the mound last season, he will be an asset to the courtsters.

Cosel Walker is the tallest man on the Hawaii Marines floor at 6'6" and when he goes up for a rebound he looks like he is about seven feet tall. Cosel will be trying to fill the shoes of Al Dillard who was lost to the squad at the end of last season.

Cosel will have a lot of shoes to fill but he might just pack the gear. He is two inches taller than Dillard and has had four years of court experience with the Air Force as well as one year of high school ball in his home town of Clinton, Kentucky. In his first game at Hilo a couple of weeks ago he cleaned the boards 33 times and did some high scoring. He will definitely help the squad this year which is slightly on the short side as basketball goes.

Bob Bowman also is a newcomer to the Hawaii Marines with five years experience in semi-pro ball and one year of service ball with the First Marine Air Wing in Japan.

Glenn Cook is back from last year's squad and has two years of service ball and four in high school under his belt.

There you have a rundown on the 1959-60 Hawaii Marines cagers. If you want to get a look at them now, and we hope that you will follow them all season, just check their schedule and we'll see you at the games.

THE FOUR PREPS

Western Jargon Amuses, Confuses Rodeo Spectators

Marines and their dependents who witnessed the 1959 Hawaiian Roundup last weekend, have to admit that the rodeo was educational as far as learning cowpoke lingo is concerned.

A good example was the cowboy and saddle bronc that came screaming out of one of the chutes. In a matter of just a few seconds, the ride was over for the rider. He got up screaming, "re-ride re-ride." A dependent wife was overheard saying, "Is that crazy fool going to ride that horse again?"

The rider actually didn't want to ride the horse again, what he meant was that he was fouled in the chute, and wanted to be rejudged with the foul taken into account.

Another wife remarked as the announcer stated the cowboy was tying the steer's feet with a pig-n-string, "I've heard of a pig-in-the-blanket, but what is a pig-n-string?" It's obvious now that it was the string the cowboy used during the calf roping event.

A Marine looked up from his program as the announcer said, "that rider is Hoolihan." The Marine glanced back to his program and remarked, "boy, is that announcer fouled up, that cowboy's name is Manuel Miguel." "Hoolihan" is an outlawed method of downing a steer in bulldogging by leaping on the critter in such a way as to drive its horns into the ground, thereby flipping the steer on its back.

K-Bay Station Theater No. 1 will be the scene of two performances of the "19th Show of Stars" Monday night, Nov. 30. Admission is 90-cents and the public is invited to attend.

Showtime will be at 7 and 8:45 p.m.

Included in the show will be talent from Japan and the mainland as well as popular teenage island groups.

Headlining the show will be Jimmy Clanton, star of the motion picture "Go, Johnny Go." The Baton Rouge, La., singer broke into the big time with his million-sales recording "Just a Dream."

Along with Clanton will be the appearance of Sandy Nelson and his band, said to be the top recording band in the nation today. This musical group skyrocketed to fame with its recording of "Teen Beat."

Making his first appearance in Hawaii will be Masaaki Hirao, Japan's leading teenage singing idol. He has been booked solid for the past 18 months in his native country with TV, screen and stage commitments.

MASAAKI HIRAO

"Jan & Dean" will be one of the featured acts. This pair of high school singers from Los Angeles sold well over a million recordings of their "Jennie Lee" and also their record of "Baby Talk." Their current record, "There is a Girl" is also climbing in sales.

Returning to the Show of Stars lineup are the "Four Preps," whose recording of "26 Miles to Catalina" hit the million mark in less than six weeks. Two members of the quartet authored the number.

Island talent will include two trios, the "Royal Drifters" and the "Blue Angels," along with singer Lance Curtis.

Tom Moffat, popular Honolulu disc jockey, will handle the master of ceremonies chores.

Tickets may be obtained from either Station theater or from members of K-Bay's Teen Club.

Teen Club members are competing with one another to sell the greatest number of tickets. The winner will have the honor of being photographed with the stars. An autographed album will be awarded to the runnerup.

1ST MARINE BRIGADE ELEMENTS IN 'ADMISSION DAY' PARADE

Representative units of K-Bay's 1st Marine Brigade have been invited to take part in Hawaii's celebration of "Admission Day," Friday, Nov. 27. Tentatively scheduled to participate in the two-and-a-half hour parade are the 1st Marine Brigade Band and Drum and Bugle Corps, a battalion landing team and an artillery battery.

Officials claim that this will be the longest and most colorful parade ever staged in Hawaii. "The States of the Union" will be the theme of the parade which begins at 9:30 a.m. on Atkinson Drive and goes down Ala Wai Blvd. to Kewalo Basin.

It will include a display by the Armed Forces, participation by schools and veteran groups, and the "States of the Union" section. The latter will include floats depicting the 49 States, ending with the 50th State float.

Plans are well underway for specifically designed State floats sponsored by the individual States.

MUSICAL SALUTE

In the evening, beginning at 8, a "Musical Salute to Statehood" will be held at the Waikiki Shell with the Honolulu Symphony Orchestra under the direction of George Barati.

Featured on the program will be Metropolitan Opera soprano Dorothy Kirsten and the University Chior. Honored guest and speaker will be Secretary of the Interior Fred A. Seaton. Admission is free.

Tickets for permanent seats, however, are available free on a first come basis at the Shell boxoffice weekdays, from noon to 5 p.m.

Governor William Quinn has proclaimed Nov. 26 as a Day of Prayer and Thanksgiving. Special joint services will be held by various faiths on this day, and Sunday the 29th, as Statehood Thanksgiving Services.

PUNCHBOWL CEREMONY

On Thanksgiving Day the Statehood Memorial Program will be held at the Pacific National Memorial Cemetery (Punchbowl) with Lieutenant Governor James Kealoha as master of ceremonies. The program begins at 11:15.

Saturday's events will include:

10 a.m., Statehood Tree Planting Ceremony at the University of Hawaii. Participating will be Dean Emeritus Harold H. Wadsworth, Gov. Quinn, Lt. Gov. Kealoha, Dr. Lawrence Snyder, president of the University, and U.S. Commissioner of Education Lawrence G. Derthick.

VARIETY, FIREWORKS SHOW

4:30 p.m., Hawaiian Statehood Twilight and 50th State Fireworks Display at Ala Moana Park. Variety shows with Hawaiian flavor until dark and then nearly an hour of fireworks.

7:30 p.m., Hawaiian Statehood Dinner, Monarch Room, Royal Hawaiian Hotel. Formal occasion will include presentation of visiting dignitaries. Dinner is $10 per person. Tickets available at all Sheraton Hotels, Hawaii Visitors Bureau and Iolani Palace.

SUNDAY EVENTS

Sunday, Nov. 29, a Statehood Dedication Ceremony will be held at the Honolulu Stadium. High school, military and the Royal Hawaiian bands will present a musical program. Entertainment will include the Royal Court, a Hawaiian Island Panorama and star variety acts. Admission is free.

Staff NCO Wives

By GERTRUDE BURKE

Our big surprise at the social meeting was a "mock" fashion show featuring styles from our own Thrift Shop. The theme was "What the well-dressed Hawaii based Marine's wife wears after two years in the Islands."

The models were Mesdames L. Russell, R. Terwilliger, E. Krotky, F. Prince, J. Menard, C. Poorman, V. Travouss, D. Holsenback, J. Kyser, K. Trygstad, P. Tunison, and J. Foley. The narration was given by Mrs. William Weckerly.

To give us all a chance to get better acquainted, we were seated at tables according to our home state. Each group gave a skit based on the product their state was noted for.

Among the best were horse racing, Kentucky; moonshine, Tennessee; beauty contests, New Jersey, and strap hanging, New York.

The next business meeting is on Tuesday, Dec. 1, at 7:30 p.m. at the SNCO Club.

For the men who read this column don't forget the Christmas Gift Wrapping service in the Regimental Exchange. It is an annual cooperative project between the SNCO Wives Club and the 'O' Wives Club.

Chinese Officers Tour Units, Base

In addition to Gen. SU, other officers of the Fleet Marine Force, Chinese Marine Corps, in the visiting party were: Col. CHEN Hsien, assistant chief of staff (G-4); Col. WANG Shu-tang, chief, artillery section; Col TU Yu-hsin, G-3; Lt. Col. KU Shin-shan, chief, communication section, and Capt. KAO Shen, liaison officer.

Following honors Monday morning at Camp Smith, the Chinese General and his party spent three days attending briefings held by Maj. Gen. R. M. McAlister, deputy commander of FMFPac, and his staff officers.

Included in the visit with the 1st Marine Brigade yesterday was a briefing at Kansas Tower by Gen. Wieseman and his staff officers on the mission and functioning of the Brigade.

Gen. SU and his party were then taken to MAG-13 for another briefing on the Brigade's air arm along with a closeup look at the Marine Corps' latest jets and aviation facilities.

Following this, the visitors were escorted to Mess Hall 2 for a tour of the mess facilities and lunch.

The afternoon was devoted to a visit with the 4th Marines, followed by a tour of the 3rd Bn., 12th Marines area where the Cannoneers displayed their artillery pieces for Gen. SU and his party. From here the group was escorted on a tour of Service Bn., facilities.

In the latter part of the afternoon, the visiting Chinese officers were transported by helicopter from Platt Field to Kahuku where they witnessed a combat demonstration by elements of the 4th Marines.
