31 U-H ROTC Cadets Train At K-Bay for Three Days

Junior Cadets -- 31 strong -- from the University of Hawaii's Air Force ROTC, ended a three and one-half day "tour of duty" aboard KMCAS early yesterday afternoon.

The cadets boarded a bus and returned to UH after going through the base visitation phase of the Professional Officer Course they are taking at the school. They are all juniors at the University and were here under the direction of Cadet LtCol. James Hamlin and 11 other senior cadet officers.

Arriving early Monday morning, the cadets went through a busy training schedule here at K-Bay. Their days began at 4:45 a.m. and ended at 9 p.m. During that time they had physical training, close-order drill, barracks instruction, classroom lectures and discussions and numerous inspections.

Also included on their schedule was marksmanship instruction, given by Station Training. They had lectures on the .38 and .45 caliber pistols and the M-14 rifle on Monday and Tuesday and then fired the weapons at the Air Station Rifle Range on Wednesday afternoon.

The cadets also witnessed a demonstration of the M-72 Light Assault Antitank Weapon at the range. That demonstration was given by H&S Battalion. FMFPac on Tuesday.

During their stay here, the cadets were quartered in H&S Barracks 1096. They ate in Messhall One along with K-Bay Marines and Navy men.

According to Cadet Hamlin, the main purpose of the training for the junior cadets was to help prepare them for their roles as senior cadets next year. He added that the climax of the training will come later in the year when the cadets travel to the Mainland for a four-week summer camp.

Samoa Flag Day Ceremonies Slated

K-Bay Marines will put-on their utilities, packs and helmets tomorrow to parade for the annual Samoan Flag Day ceremonies in Honolulu.

Along with the marching unit and color guard, the Marine Band from Pearl Harbor will muster at Kapiolani Park to participate in festivities, observing the raising of the American Flag for the first time in Samoa. The program is scheduled to begin at 8:30 a.m.

A composite platoon of 47 men in combat equipment will represent the Marines in the parade which will also include Navy and Air Force units. 2dLt. A.H. Coyloa, VMF(AW)-232 Material Control Officer, will command the platoon.

The color guard, composed of four VMF(AW)-232 Marines, will carry the Brigade color for the parade. The observance dates back to April 17, 1900 when the American Flag was raised for the first time at the U.S. Naval Station, Tutuila, Samoa. The Station is between Hawaii and New Zealand and some 2200 miles from Hawaii, on the southern shore of Pago Pago Bay's inner harbor.

President William McKinley had directed the Station's construction in February 1900.

Former Brigade CG Meets Press During Camp Smith Conference

Brigadier General Marion E. Carl, former Brigade commander, stopped in Hawaii this week enroute to his new post as Commanding Officer, MCAS, Cherry Pt., N.C.

In a Camp Smith press conference Tuesday, General Carl, who landed units of the old Brigade at Chu-Lai and Phu-Bai last April, extolled his former command.

"I am proud of them," he said. "I may be partial but I think they were the best-trained unit in the Marine Corps."

The general said most of those who left here last March for Okinawa and Vietnam will be rotating this month. Few, according to him will be returning to Hawaii, others to pick-up families here before leaving for Mainland assignments.

In his press conference General Carl emphasized that the current civil unrest in Vietnam was not hurting Marine morale or hindering their military performance.

The WWII, flying hero was presented the Legion of Merit for his service as Assistant Commander of the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing in Vietnam by LtGen. Victor H. Krulak, Commander, FMFPac.

Water Carnival Officials Plan Many Unusual Attractions

K-Bay's Water Carnival officials are busy planning, arranging and working-out details for a "really big show" June 19.

According to Maj. A.D. Albert, Carnival president, many new and unusual attractions are being planned including the possible appearance of the Hawaii Soaring Club. The glidermen will tentatively present a program of flying demonstrations and static displays of their unique aircraft.

Hawaii's Power Boat Association, Outrigger Canoe Racing Association and the Kaneohe Yacht Club, also will be on K-Bay's program again this year. "Amusement booths are being planned by many organizations which didn't take part in the carnival last year," stated Major Albert.

The K-Bay Youth Activities Association, carnival beneficiaries, plan to go all out this year. Booths are already scheduled to be operated by Cub Scouts and Little League membership.

In addition to attractions operated by all commands at K-Bay, civic groups have also been invited to set-up on the Midway.

MCAS and tenant units also plan static displays of equipment, while several sporting goods firms have been contacted to display boats and other water sport equipment.

Thrills and spills on the Kaneohe Bay "stage" will be provided by the precision water skiers of the K-Bay Globe and Anchor Ski Club.

K-Bay's Search and Rescue team will demonstrate their rescue talents for carnival-goers.

CLOSE-ORDER DRILL--Cadets from the University of Hawaii's ROTC Professional Officer's Course go through some drill maneuvers.

Commissary To Change Hours

The MCAS Commissary Store will have new hours starting Tuesday. They are Tuesdays through Fridays 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The store will remain closed Sunday, Monday and Holidays as before.

Library Week April 17-23

APRIL 17 marks the beginning of National Library Week. Like the USO, a post or shipboard library can be something of a home away from home for men and women in uniform.

Often, in the middle of 'round-the-clock military activity, the library is one of the few places where off-duty personnel can settle in a comfortable chair, listen to music, write letters and catch up on the magazines from back home.

The library also offers something more important than relaxation. Perhaps no profession in the United States today can claim so many "self-educated" men as the military. These men have been their own teachers. For many, service libraries have been a school.

The quality of service libraries varies. In some cases they are little more than a few shelves of books on the mess-deck of a small ship. At large commands they often contain thousands of books, records, magazines and newspapers. But, in every case a maximum effort is exerted to provide the best library facilities possible under local conditions.

A library is a public collection of knowledge, a storehouse of answers in a world becoming more and more complex. In celebrating National Library Week, we recognize the need for, and value of, these collections regardless of size or location. Another way of recognizing them is by using their facilities, not to the library's benefit, but your own. Visit your service library this week and every week. (AFPS)

Easter Is Over, Where Do We Go

By Chaplain H.E. Austin

Easter Sunday has come and Easter Sunday has gone! Now we must ask ourselves "Where do we go from here?" The Easter Lilies have faded. The Easter hats have lost a little of their splendor. More than likely the new suits and children's apparel are on their way to the cleaners. The glory of the bright Easter morning is fading fast from our minds. Now, we must decide what Easter means to us Christians.

The Christian Church has always made Easter a high point in the church year. We have special preaching missions. We have a special communion service. We plan our religious music and our religious preaching to reach a climax in the glorious dawn.

Then, all too often, we Christians are prone to relax and coast into some other special day of the church year. The Easter climax has been reached; we look back to it with memories rather than look ahead with a greater vision.

Let us remember that the first Easter morning was the beginning, not the end! It was the birthday of Christianity -- that great movement which shook the pages of history with the message that God broke through to man. It was a climax in religious experience, but more than that it was the beginning of the Christian Church as it caught the flame of the Easter Sunrise and burned it into the hearts of consecrated men.

In the 8th chapter of Acts there is an interesting account of the early Christians. Soon after the glorious experience the Christians faced a great persecution.

Stephen, the first martyr, was stoned, and the repercussions made the early Christians scatter for their safety. They split up as a group, and fled in many directions.

You would imagine that they wanted to "lay-low" until the heat was off. You would guess that there would be no whisper from them to disclose their identity. Quite the contrary! We read in Acts 4 that "those who were scattered went about preaching the word!"

The message of Jesus and of his Resurrection was so much a part of them that they preached even as they fled. They told everyone that Jesus was the Son of God and the Saviour of Men!

Where do we go from here? What effect has Easter 1966 A.D. had on your life? Is Easter over for you -- or is Easter a beginning for new height in your Christian experience?

Where do we go from here?

NUMISMATISM BOOKS--Maccine Titus, the Air Station's chief Librarian, and Maj. R. E. Hershey look over some of the books donated by the Major on behalf of the K-Bay Coin Club.

K-Bay's Coin Club Closes ; Presents Books to Library

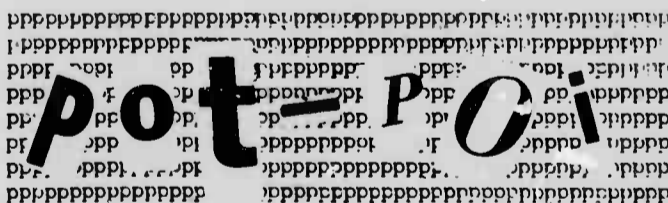

Repeated efforts to maintain membership in the K-Bay Coin Club have met with failure and, as a result, the Air Station Library's numismatist section has become richer by seven new volumes.

The books were presented to Maccine Titus, chief librarian, by Maj. R.E. Hershey, on behalf of the four remaining members of the Coin Club.

The club ceased activities recently and the members decided to take the money in the treasury and use it to purchase the books.

Numismatists here at K-Bay may now enjoy the following new volumes at the library: SO CALLED DOLLARS; EUROPEAN CROWNS AND TALERS SINCE 1800; COINS OF THE BRITISH WORLD; JAPANESE COINAGE; PAPER MONEY OF THE U.S.; GOLD COINS OF THE WORLD; and NUMISMATIC BIBLIOGRAPHY.

We've been accused of wasting time, money and words. Now we've been appraised of the great amount of water wasted right here on Station.

The Utilities Conservation Officer, 1stLt. J. N. Rachford, stopped by last week. He's well versed in his subject, has worked up an impressive set of statistics, and puts across a good pitch.

The Lieutenant says that five per cent of our private quarters are wasting 40,000 gallons of water on lawns every day.

It's computed like this: An average of 55 homes a day are running sprinklers and soakers until the water cascades down the driveways, over the curbs and into the gutters. The loss on each is four gallons per minute.

This daily loss would flush 10,000 toilets, wash 800 cars, or furnish enough water for a family of four's regular water requirements for 154 days.

Locally, total annual waste in lawn watering alone would cost homeowners $4,000 out-of-pocket. And think of the added waste in the homes and work areas.

To further impress this on our small minds we worked out the water-loss statistics in our own terms.

The daily missing H2O would serve up 840,127 glasses of drinking water (ugh!), or 200,000 fifths for your steam iron, or enough water to mix 5,519,431 Scotch and waters or to support almost that many guppies.

That's if our figures are correct. One thing we've not been accused of -- being a mathematician.

Liz Damon, Candidate For Carnival Queen

The first candidate for Queen of the K-Bay Water Carnival was announced earlier this week when Service Medical-Dental named Miss Elizabeth Damon as their choice to reign over the June 19 festivities.

Miss Damon is better known to K-Bay Marines and Navymen as Liz, the songstress who leads the musical group Liz and the Stardells. She has made several appearances at the E-Club in recent months.

Liz, a pert five-foot, two-inches and 105 pounds, is a senior at Sacred Heart Academy, from where she is scheduled to graduate May 28. Brown-eyed Liz will celebrate her 18th birthday this month.

Phone Patches Are Specialty Of K-Bay's GySgt. Stevens

By: Cpl. S. J. Preisler

"That is Lima, Oscar, Oscar, Foxtrot," came the voice over the radio. "The number is 253-733."

Gunnery Sergeant Joe Stevens on the receiving end of the transmission in K-Bay's amateur radio station KH6BGS answers back with a question. "Is that Warrant Officer Loof?"

Again the scratchy voice over the radio, "Second Lieutenant."

"Well, congratulations," Stevens replies. "Hang on one."

Stevens quickly dials the number he had been given and waits for the answer. When it comes, he passes his welcome news.

"Hello, Mrs. Loof? This is Gunnery Sergeant Stevens over at the Marine Corps Air Station Amateur Radio Station. I have your husband on the phone from Okinawa and I'm going to let you talk to him. Have you ever talked by phone patch before? Fine."

A quick flip of a switch and Stevens is back on the line to Okinawa.

"O.K. KR6FQ, go ahead."

In just a few minutes, "Gunny" Stevens had made a successful phone patch from Okinawa to KMCAS. His patch brought about a reunion for 2ndLt. and Mrs. Charles J. Loof who had not seen or spoken to each other since the departure of the Brigade more than a year ago. At that time Loof was a Chief Warrant Officer serving with H&MS-13.

For Stevens, making possible such a reunion was satisfaction. He proudly sat back and monitored the hook-up, making sure not to lose the frequency. He also switched from transmission to receiving each time Mrs. Loof said "over" and vice-versa when Lieutenant Loof said it.

Further proof of Stevens' satisfaction in making phone patches can be found with one quick glance at his log book. Last month he recorded 274 patches, "all over the country," he said. He also sent out 21 messages.

During the first four days of operation this month, Stevens made 73 phone patches and was expecting an increase, especially from his two stations in Okinawa.

"With Marines beginning to return here from duty in the Far East, I'll be hooking up with the Okinawa Stations every weekday at 2 p.m.," said Stevens. "I'll accept calls until there are no more."

Aside from the two Okinawan stations, Stevens keeps a regular schedule with "Hams" on the mainland. His contact to the East Coast goes through stations W4LZ and W4LIU in Florida. He calls Florida in the morning before 9 and after 10.

Between 9 and 10 a.m. he calls two Marine Corps stations--at Camp Pendleton and MCAS El Toro, Calif. He talks to Camp Pendleton first and then El Toro.

"Gunny" Stevens also

Involuntary Extensions Gradually Phasing Out

Secretary of the Navy, Paul H. Nitze has announced that both the Navy and Marine Corps plan to gradually phase out involuntary extensions of enlisted personnel by Sept. 30 for the Navy and Oct. 31 for the Marine Corps.

Involuntary extensions were announced in August 1965 as a result of the Navy and Marine Corps immediate requirement for increased numbers of trained and experienced personnel to meet commitments in Southeast Asia. Continuation of this policy was necessary until adequate numbers of new personnel were trained and available for assignment.

The Navy plans to reduce the periods of extension according to the following schedule:

Enlistments expiring between Mar. 1-April 30 will receive a three month extension, May 1 - June 30, a two month extension and July 1 - Aug. 31 receive a one month extension.

The Marine Corps will phase out extensions in weekly increments during the month of October.

The Marine Corps also plans to terminate its deferment of resignations and retirements of officers on Aug. 31, 1966. The selective deferral of voluntary retirements and resignations of regular officers will continue for the Navy.

Secretary Nitze also said that provisions have been made for early release of personnel in time to enroll in college for the fall semester.

Housing Available For Dependents of Overseas Marines

Dependents of sponsors ordered to duty in the Far East between Jan. 1 and Aug. 31 may remain in government quarters until their sponsor completes his tour of duty.

Additionally, personnel transferred from K-Bay units to other on-Island Marine Corps Commands between the same period may remain in Government quarters while the sponsor is performing duty at the new command.

The current and projected housing availability has made this quarters occupancy extension possible.

All extensions must be approved by the housing officer. Application forms are available at the housing office.

Any resident not covered by the above policy may request an extension as outlined in Station Order 11101.1E.

Withholding System Changes For Federal Income Tax

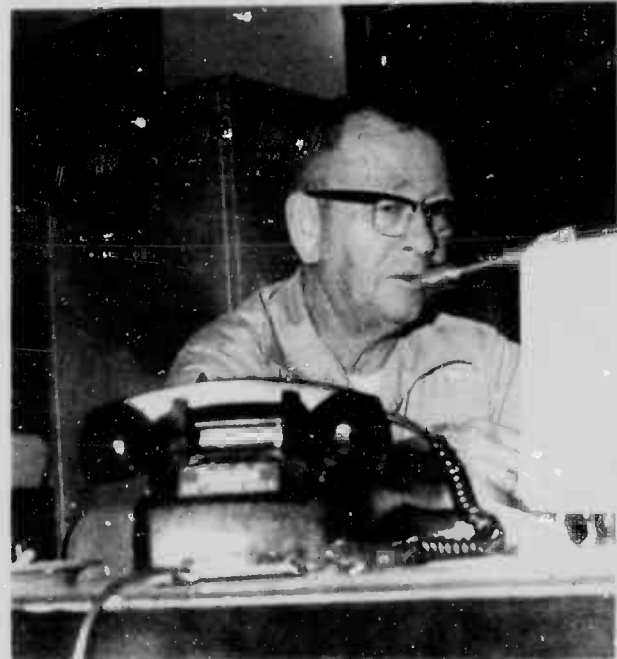

A new system for withholding money from pay for federal income tax purposes was revealed this week by the Station Disbursing Officer, Major Frank M. Cieszycki.

Known as the Tax Adjustment Act of 1966 passed as Public Law 89-368 on March 15, the system will become effective on May 1. It amends the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 by replacing the present 14 per cent flat rate of withholding with six graduated rates ranging from 14 to 30 per cent.

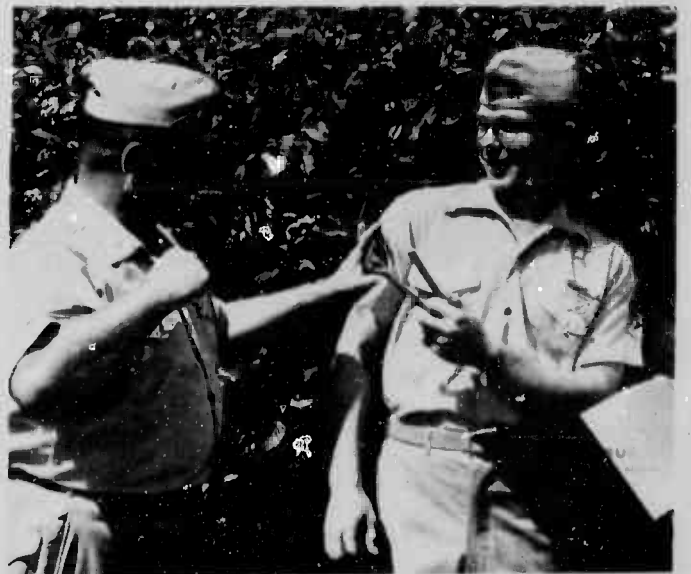

Not a tax increase but a means to make the tax withheld come closer to the actual tax owed, the new method should help relieve the problem of owing additional money many taxpayers face when they file their annual income tax returns.

All military personnel will be required to fill out Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate (W-4) in order to comply with the new income withholding system. Forms will be available at all units. The W-4s must be completed and submitted to the Station Disbursing Office by May 1 in order for individuals to benefit from the new system.

ON THE AIR--GySgt. Joe Stevens talks to another station.

BRIBERY--Newly promoted SSgt. J. L. Phillipp offers two cigars to LtCol. W. R. Affleck, Jr. Station Comptroller, during traditional "stripe pinning" ceremonies.

NEW HOURS

Golf course and bowling alley snack bars continue to remain open with their normal hours. Food service is also available at the various clubs here on Station.

DEBUT CATCH--1stLt. G. K. Lambert, Cpls. D.G. Tallmadge and G. C. Love and Capt. R. W. Minshew pose with the fish they caught on the initial trip of the Brigade Special Services Chartered Fishing Boat, Aukaka.

Brigade Special Services Offering Sea Fishing Trips

Brigade Special Services is now offering deep sea fishing trips to all Brigade Marines, Navymen and their dependents.

The section has hired David Nottage and his fishing boat, Aukaka, for four trips per month. The trips are allotted to each major unit once a month. If more interest is shown, more trips will be planned.

The trips cost a total of $80 with Special Services paying the first $30 and an additional $20 is put up by the unit. Fishermen making the trip must come up with the remaining $30. Six people can make the trip at a time. HqCo, Brigade made the debut trip Monday and came home with 54 fish. Making the excursion

O-Wives View Japanese Show; Nominate Members for Officers

By Dottie Hershey

Midst cherry blossoms and ornate fans O-Wives Club gathered for April's luncheon Tuesday.

A short business program was conducted during which the following slate for next year's officers was presented: President Marilyn Afflect-Janet Wilkinson; Vice-President, Cophine Ferris-Nadine Trapnell; Recording Secretary, Edie Carr-Sadie Farrington; Corresponding Secretary, Ruth Pullen-Jean Sutton; Treasurer, Nancy Copperwaite-Esther Riney. Election is scheduled for May 2.

President Natalie O'Keefe, Treasurer Dottie Macklin and Board Member Vicki Marino have announced their resignations. It is with much regret we bid adieu to these very capable gals. A gold charm bracelet was presented to our departing President, Natalie O'Keefe on behalf of the O-Wives Club.

Navy wife Elizabeth Hollett Smith presented a most interesting talk and demonstration of Sumi-E or Japanese ink painting. Two of her creations were awarded as door prizes to Barbara Gore and Esther Riney.

Following this we were treated to a delightful commentary on Japanese dress by Mrs. Eleanor Arita. Heading the models was Hawaii's 1957 Cherry Blossom Queen, the beautiful Carole Saikyo Tokioka. Members modeling were Michiko Ellingwood, Suzuki Keene and Carol Sunahara. Different types of Kimonos modeled were the Yukata, Furisode, Homongi and the elaborate wedding kimono of the Japanese bride. Crowning the program was the dressing of Carol Sunahara in the bridal kimono by Mrs. Masa Watt, a diminutive and utterly charming going-on-78 Japanese lady assisted by Mrs. Arita.

This was definitely one of those "we're glad we didn't miss it" luncheons so bouquets to program director Margaret Fenton and to the wives of PMR and VMF(AW)-232 for the lovely decorations.

ENLISTED MEN'S CLUB

By Mudcat

Big happenings await E-Club goers tonight, whether you start the evening right at the 4-7 Happy Hour or enjoy a taste-tempting meal in the Aloha

Room.

Whatever your choice, stick around. We've got a really big show in line for you. It'll be a special floor show, featuring the song, dance and comedy routines of The Gamblers. They perform in the Ballroom from 8 to midnight.

The Ballroom should swing tomorrow night as the Just Five Plus Two step in for an 8-to-midnight performance. They feature Rock and Roll type music and the Plus Two portion of their combo is two female songbirds. When not singing, the girls let loose with some fancy Go-Go dancing.

Monday night is that good old Bosses Night at your friendly EM Club. If you're on good terms with the old boy, stay that way and bring him down for the 4-6 Happy Hour and some of the Aloha King's delicious free chicken. If you're not on good terms, now's the time to win back some points and do likewise. Don't forget, he knows about it and he's anxiously awaiting your invitation.

The E-Club has announced a new closing time for the dining room. Hours will remain the same for Friday and Saturday, but it will close one hour earlier -- 9 instead of 10 p.m. on all other days.

E-Wives To Meet Wednesday For Buffet Dinner At E-Club

By Hazel Schnabel

Those April Showers are here and Spring has sprung! All things considered we have quite a busy schedule this month.

Our Easter Party was a tremendous success thanks to all the wonderful club members who helped organize and plan it. We wish to thank Carol Buckholt for all her work and effort in designing and sewing the Easter Bunny costume. Also we'd like to thank Sgt. Louie Potter for being our Easter Bunny. He looked cute doing the bunny hop!!

The costume has been donated to Castle Memorial Hospital for use in future years.

Club officers for the coming term will be installed Wednesday night at the club. Cocktail hour begins at 6:30 p.m. followed by a buffet dinner at 7.

Our monthly business meeting has been scheduled for Thursday morning at 9. Be sure to attend. We'll have a door prize from Kailua Florist and refreshments are on the house.

Congratulations to the proud parents, Sgt. and Mrs. Frank Wagoner on the birth of their daughter, Marina, this month.

Jo Ann Gaides is our lady of the week. She hails from Chicago, Ill. and is married to Sgt. James Gaides, serving with BLT-1/5 overseas.

The steak and lobster crowd is in for a real treat tonight. Lovely vocalist, Ann Munsey entertains in the dining room from 8 until midnight. Ann will be backed up by the "Music Men".

As part of our program to provide you with the best service and cuisine this side of the Pali, we've changed our regular Saturday night menu and added a lot of extras. Stop by tomorrow night and see for yourself. The popular "Bill Coward Trio" returns tomorrow night to play for both dining and dancing enjoyment.

Don't forget family night and the delicious prime rib buffet Sunday from 8 to 8 p.m. If you're one of the nearly 300 persons who came to the buffet last Sunday, I know you'll be back very soon. Jose takes his usual post at the piano during the buffet, followed by Ray Andrews at the Tapa Room Organ Bar at 8 p.m.

May Day and our big Luau is just a few weeks away. This will be a real old fashioned Hawaiian Luau with poi, barrels full of ono KauKau and a top Polynesian floor show. Please don't wait too long before making your reservations. Call us at 72081.

Safety Tips

It seems one of our Safety people was strolling along (probably making note of some hazardous condition), when a sizzling fire broke out in his trousers pocket.

After a moment of shocked panic, he decided to let it burn out rather than risk shooting his hand into the inferno. So he bunched the cloth of his pants into a wad, holding it away from his skin, and executed a very fine version of an Indian Rain Dance (with appropriate sound effects.)

When the emergency was over, he gingerly recovered his scorched possessions from the wrecked pocket. Among the rescued items were two large books of "safety" matches. They were truly safe by then, since they had all been ignited...in his pocket. The abrasive cover of one of the books had inter-locked with the other and... (Aerospace Maintenance Safety.)

S-CLUB

By Honest John

Weekends at the S-Club get bigger and better.

Tonight it's Happy Hour from 4-8 and a special 85-cent fish dinner to be served from 5-10 p.m.

Tomorrow evening's dance features The Gamblers on the bandstand from 8 to midnight.

Saturday's family special in the dining room is roast beef at $1.50 for adults and $.75 for children. The chef will be in business from 6-9 p.m.

The catering service is proving highly successful. When you're in a rush or just tired of cooking, call the club for fast delivery.

Sunday's menu lists the club's famous turkey with all the trimmings -- $1.15 for grownups and $.65 for youngsters.

Plan ahead! May 7 will be a big night. On hand will be the Island's number one variety show, Hawaiian Hayride.

Station Special Services Newsletter

I'd like to congratulate the Aku Marines, and particularly their spark plug 2ndLt. Dick Keller, for finally getting the Special Services boat, the AKU I in the water and running.

It still has to come out one more time but this past weekend it actually made a trip out into the bay on its own power - and got back. When I got here 18 months ago it hadn't been running for many moons. This is really quite an accomplishment.

There have been quite a few incidents of people swimming at Fort Hase Beach despite the fact that it is closed. The experience of being hauled off by our friendly MPs is not really the deterrent that should keep you out of that water when a lifeguard is not on duty. It should be obvious to all by now that the waters around our peninsula can be dangerous.

Again, the lifeguard situation is bad. I hope some of you will take the Red Cross Lifesaving Course next week and join the Lima Hana program so that I can put one of the regular lifeguards at Fort Hase Beach on the weekends. But please, in your own self interest, do not swim there until a guard is on duty.
