Another organization which will commemorate its founding this year, in August, is the Naval Facilities Engineering Command first established in 1842 as the Bureau of Yards and Docks. With the Civil Engineer Corps and Seabees under their command,

Scholarship Fund Honors Major General Hochmuth

A memorial scholarship fund in honor of Major General Bruno A. Hochmuth, former 3d Marine Division Commander, has been established by the 3d Marine Division Association.

General Hochmuth was killed in action in Vietnam last November when his helicopter crashed near Hue.

Beneficiaries of the scholarships will be dependents of 3d Marine Division men killed in Vietnam. Details on eligibility requirements will be made public by the Association at a later date.

Almost $13,000 is already in the memorial fund. It was sent to the Association by General Hochmuth's successor in Vietnam, Major General Rayvon McC. Tompkins, and represents voluntary contributions from the men of the 3d Marine Division who wanted a "fitting tribute" to their commander.

Association officials also announced that part of the receipts from the organization's 14th annual reunion this year will be set aside for the scholarship fund.

The reunion is planned for July 25-28 in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park resort city of Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

Donations to the General Hochmuth Memorial Scholarship Fund may be sent to: 3d Marine Division Association, Post Office Box 7154, San Diego, California 92107.

DoD To Draft Marines,
Expect 4,000 In April

The Department of Defense April draft call for 48,000 inductees includes 4,000 men for the Marine Corps, the first time since March 1966 the Defense Department requested the inductees.

According to DoD officials, the Marine Corps request is a result of the need to replace armed 19,000 men inducted to the Marines in late 1965 and early 1966 during an accelerated buildup of Marine personnel at the time.

Defense officials said a majority of the 19,000 personnel inducted into the Marine Corps at late 1965 are being or have been released to active duty, and the replacement personnel are being obtained through a stepped up recruitment program which is expected to raise 8,000 men per month for the first half of 1968.

RECEIVES MEDAL—Former K-Bay commanding officer, Colonel M. Moran, receives Legion of Merit from LtGen. V.H. Krulak, CG, MHPf, during his retirement ceremonies Feb. 29.
This week Elizabeth Ann Toupin, an exotic cookbook writer, gives us her terrific recipe for Fried Rice. Mrs. Toupin was born in Hawaii, and is residing at the present in Pound Ridge, New York. If anyone is qualified to inform us of the single, best version for fried rice, it's Mrs. Toupin.

We are advised by Mrs. Toupin to remember four basic rules. These are to ensure perfection every time.

1. Always use cold rice (warm rice will result in a sticky mess).
2. Use a meat that has a generous amount of fat, such as pork or ham. Bacon bits may be combined with chicken, shrimp, or crab.
3. While cooking, make sure the rice grains separate and are thinly covered with oil.
4. Use lots of chopped onions, preferably scallions.

Fried rice is best made just before eating. All ingredients may be cut, measured, and set aside for the actual cooking takes less than five minutes. If it must be prepared ahead, omit scallions and eggs. While reheating fried rice, scramble two fresh eggs in separate pan and mix into fried rice. Fry scallions in a bit of oil and stir into fried rice before serving.

Fried Rice
3 tablespoons oil
2 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup cooked ham or bacon slivers
1/2 cup cooked pork, chicken or beef slivers
1 cup scallions, chopped
4 cups cooked cold rice
2 tablespoons soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
1/2 teaspoon salt

Today is Sliced celery, mushrooms, water chestnuts, and other leftover vegetables may be added.

Heat half the oil in a heavy skillet. Scramble eggs slightly, remove and set aside. Add rest of the oil and fry ham, meat slivers, and scallions. Wait a few minutes, then add vegetables and cold rice, stirring constantly so that rice grains separate, and grains become coated with oil. Season with soy sauce, sugar and monosodium glutamate. Add scrambled eggs.

There are versions of this recipe that involve less ingredients and perhaps less time but my audience, writing this column is to bring you some very fine recipes that you can be proud of to serve to family and guests alike. As I have said before, try all the recipes that come your way, they will estivate you with: the Hawaiian way of life. Wendy's kitchen will offer you always only the very best.

Until next week, Au Revoir from Wendy's kitchen.

Drivers Must Be Relicensed

All drivers in Hawaii must be relicensed during the 1968. The City and County of Honolulu has established seven centers for relicensing and an alphabetical schedule has been established to relicense drivers according to the first letter of their last names.

The relicensing centers are at 1018 Alapai Street, near the corner of South King Street; at 833 Olie Street, Waipahu; and at the police stations in Kalihi, Pearl City, Wai'anae, Kaneohe and Kailua. Hours at all offices are from 7:45 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

The alphabetical schedule is as follows:

January, A and B; February, B; March, C; April, D; E and F; May, G and H; June, J and K; July, L; August, M; September, N, O, P; Q; October, R and S; November, T, U and V; December, W, X, Y and Z.

Persons in those alphabetical categories must register during the specified month. At times there may be advanced in the alphabetical category, if the estimated number in any group is relicensed sooner than anticipated.

A U.S. Marine Officer who won the Bronze Star Medal in Vietnam but lost his legs to a Viet Cong mine has been named the Mariner Corp's top winner of the Freedoms Foundation Letter Awards.

Captain James J. Kirschke wrote of things in life he cherished and sacrifices made:

"Two legs are not too much to give in return for all that my country has given me."

He was presented $100 and a September, Washington, Helicopter Medal on February 22 during special ceremonies at Freedoms Foundation, Valley Forge, Penn. The Freedoms Foundation Awards honored Armed Forces personnel for their written expressions on the topic, "Freedom—My Heritage, My Responsibility."

Along with other top ten winners, Captain Kirschke was a guest for a special tour in Washington, D.C. including the White House and a meeting with the Chiefs of Staff.

Captain Kirschke also received personal congratulations from General Leonard F. Chapman, Jr., Commandant of the Marine Corps, while visiting Headquarters Marine Corps.

Captain James Kirschke's award winning letter to the Freedoms Foundation is as follows:

"I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom."

President Abraham Lincoln November 21, 1864

Letter to Mrs. Bixby, whose 5 sons were reported killed in battle.

As a boy I was taught by my Christian family to contend for the values that I found estimable. In a quiet way my parents and those I respected demonstrated that a good man must always battle for the valuable things he cherishes.

As I grew older and came to know more about our country, my respect and love for America and the American people grew with the years. Like many other Americans, my family and I have always been able to live comfortably, to come and go as we desired, and to say pretty much what we wanted to say without fear of it... We all went to school attended church, played sports, made friends, dated, and danced.

Through reading and listening to other Americans, I learned that the idea of burying democracy looms large in the Communist mind. The idea that the Communists are trying to take away the comfortable life that we enjoy ranked in me. As a young man, I realized that my responsibility to make whatever sacrifices were necessary to maintain our freedom of freedom. While I was in Vietnam in the Marine infantry, the last sacrifice that I offered on the altar of freedom was my legs. When one considers that originally by enlisting I offered my life for the freedom of freedom, I did not have to make the complete sacrifice of my offering. Two legs are not too much to give in return for all that my country has given me."

Deadline Set For Writers
League Contest

Professional criticism and $100 in cash will be the awards in the Armed Forces Writers League’s 1968 Amateur Short Story Contest. The most important award to many will be the evaluation and criticism which each entry will get from three professionals.

The contest, which is open to all military personnel, depends, civilian employees, veterans and others interested in the Armed Forces, is for unpublished stories of 12,000 words or less on any subject and closes April 1.

There is a $50 first prize and 25 other awards in addition to evaluation for sales potential and detailed criticism.

All entries must be submitted in short story form which can be obtained in writing to the Armed Forces Writers League, George Washington Station, Alexandria, Va. 22305.

Red Cross

A Red Cross Orientation Program will be held Wednesday, March 13, at the Religious Education Building for all interested dependent wives.

The program will start at 9 a.m. and finish at 3 p.m. Any mothers with baby-sitting problems should call 2.56.2245. Further information on the course may be obtained by calling the Red Cross Office, 7.3755.

English Course Starts March 11

Persons interested in attending a course in high school English (11th grade) should contact the Station Chaplains’ Office prior to March 11. The course will be taught by a qualified instructor hired by the Marine Corps Instructor Hire Program. Each student will pay approximately $5 for the course.

Classes will meet twice a week (2½ hours per class session) for 12 weeks. The course will start the first part of March and lead the Marine education 15 students have registered prior to March 11. High school credit will be given upon completion of the course. This course may be used to fulfill partial requirements for a high school diploma from the State of Hawaii.

"SHORT-HAUL" SOLUTION—This type of commercial transport—250-mph aircraft with retractable rotor blades and a fixed wing—is the most promising answer to the problem of future short-haul travel. The pictured “compound” aircraft could fly 30 passengers efficiently and swiftly from city center to city center on routes under 250 miles. Travelers would avoid time-consuming trips that are now necessary to often-congested airports far from the heart of the city. Larger, ninety-passenger winged rotorcraft could be operational in the 1975-80 time period, the Lockheed engineers said.

Boy Scout Troop Needs Merit Badge Counselors

If you have a little free time, if you would like to work with young men for the 11 to 17 age group, the Boy Scout Troop can use specifically, merit badge counselors are needed. Before a scout can advance beyond first class to Star, Life or Eagle rank, he must earn merit badges. To fully, he must demonstrate a working knowledge of each merit badge.

A counselor guides him in his goal and also tests him on the requirements for the award. With a knowledge of one or more of the more than 100 merit badges would be of help.

You are not to be active in scouting, although it would help. If you are interested, and feel you are qualified to help, please contact either Scoutmaster Joe Cosito or call the Information Services Office (7-2141) and leave your name and telephone number.

It's Your Responsibility

The time of the year has again arrived for us all to face the fact that one of life's two unavoidable situations — taxes. At least, that's what the old cliché states.

Everyone has received his W-2 forms and, after the initial shock of seeing how much we really made during 1977 wears off and we have convinced ourselves that we really do have our correct withholding statement (not that the allows the income of the commanding general or the commanding officer to determine tax rates), it is specifically stated on the program bulletin.

BY CHAPLAIN G. F. RONCH

Serving God

God is in everything. He created, but more than that, He does things that are greater than us. This we have heard many times. But we haven't made enough of this fact, perhaps, because it is so much a part of us, for perhaps just because we have been hearing it so long and so often that we have been blinded by the very closeness of God's beauty and grandeur. "Know you not," says St. Paul, "that your members are the temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have from God?" (1 Cor. 6:19)

Having Him in our hearts, we can develop a way of life by offering up whatever we do for God's glory. It is a fact we must develop for ourselves, we must make our offering each morning, directing every thought, word, and action toward the glory and honor, and for our own salvation. In this way, even our meals and our sleep become so many acts of worship, because we intend eating and sleeping for the gaining of strength to go on in His service. It does not matter how service may be offered: perhaps you are a clerk, or a housewife, or a Communicant. We are working for God. Someone has to do these things, He has put us where we are, and we're pleasing Him by keeping our little corner swept clean. Let us do it cheerfully!

Well here it is, that time of the year again when we all dig down to contribute to the national economy. Now I realize that this is a pretty sadistic way to lead into discussing a career benefit. Wives Host Aloha Party For Mrs. Moran

February 27 was the date that Station O-Wives chose for their bill reserve to non-Aloha to Mrs. Moran. The place was Mike’s, in the Colony Surf, on the Beach. One room was reserved for this affair and the view was beautiful.

About fifty five women were there to enjoy the delicious lunch and to say farewell to Mrs. Moran, wife of the former Kaneohe Base Commanding Officer, Colonel Moran. Mrs. Moran was presented with a gorgeous lei made of green jade flowers and also an engraved cooking book. A hostess in each box, where she was seated, will pay the tab for any guests she may bring.

One good reason that you will not want to miss this mid-week break at your club. So come on out and enjoy the friendly atmosphere of a mid-week hour. Bring a friend and lift a few cool ones.

Dead ‘VC’ Squad Captured Alive
By Amphibian Tractor Battalion

When anatrac crews from the 3rd Amphibian Tractor Bn. checked out an area reportedly infested with dead Viet Cong they discovered that all the enemy troops were armed and very much alive. A squad of VC lying motionless on the ground. Two of the enemy suddenly sprang up and scrambled toward a hedgerow for cover.

“We killed one when we opened up, but the other VC reached the treeline,” said Cpl. James J. Malony.

Two Marines pursued the escape.

“We figured it was a trap and the VC wanted us to follow him with our entire force, so the other close in behind and ambush us,” continued Malony.

Disembarking from the anatrac, the men were divided into two squads and started to swing towards the enemy.

As the Marines started heading for the other VC on the ground, five more of them stood up and cautiously approached the Leathernecks with their hands up.

While loading the prisoners atop the anatrac, another VC raised up on his knees and began to hurl a grenade.

Malony shot him.

The Marines then began to search the area for enemy supplies and weapons. Malony and four other men were ordered to check a nearby river bed.

After a short search the Leathernecks unearthed a cache of enemy supplies, including, numerous enemy rifles, pistols, 8-40 rockets, intelligence data and 80 Chicum grenades.

Monday, the two Marines who had left in pursuit of the fleeing VC returned to report a final enemy kill.

Sentry Dogs Lead Unglamorous Life
But Prove Invaluable In Vietnam

A “four-legged radar system” provides night security for the helicopter pads and outer defense perimeter for Marine Aircraft Group-36 at Phu Bai.

This system, nothing new to the Marines, is provided by highly trained German shephers of the 2nd Sentry Dog Plt., from the 3rd Marine Aircraft Bn. at Da Nang.

Sgt. Charles F. Romro, noncommissioned officer in charge of the platoons commented, “Contrary to popular belief, the sentry dog, once trained, leads a very unglamorous life. However, his services in Vietnam are invaluable, He seldom, if ever, actually catches anyone, but the mere knowledge of his presence seems to keep the ‘bad guys’ away from the area.”

“The dog’s keen sense of smell,” Romero said, “about 40 times greater than that of a human can pick up the scent of an intruder as much as 250 meters away. He then alerts his handler in turn calls for assistance from the regular Marine guard.”

Each of the dogs being used in the northern I Corps area has been in Vietnam for nearly two years, and many have had to be trained to respond to as many as three or four different hand signal.

At Phu Bai, the dogs normally patrol only at night. However, if a Marine sentry is patrol reports suspicious movement anytime during the day, the dogs may be called upon to sniff out the area.

When not on post, the dogs are kept in a remote area where they won’t be disturbed. According to LanceCpl. Vincent Murante, the handler, “if the dogs become accustomed to the constant everyday noise of people around them, they will take these sounds for granted and won’t pay any attention to them when on post night.”

Create Own Knick-Knacks
At Station Ceramics Shop

Story and Photos
By
Sgt. R.E. Lavers

Be it Christmas, a birthday or your own desire to create, the Ceramics Shop has complete facilities for producing "whatch-a-ma-jig" for the center of your table, "thing-a-majigs" to hold flowers in or a shining gold statue of the Madonna. And you have just to choose your mold, pour your slip and fire your ware.

When you choose your mold, look carefully over the 400 different plaster casting molds. There is everything from finely detailed figurines to fruit ornamented bowls.

As you pour your slip, be sure the consistancy of the clay and water mixture is such as to insure that the walls of the project do not fall before they set. When the plaster mold is removed, the result is called "green ware." Green ware dries in about five days, depending on the size of the project. It is then fired in one of the four ceramic kilns and renamed "bisc ware." Bisc ware may be painted with various colors of ceramic paint and refired for the finished project.

The Station Ceramics Shop is open on Wed. and Fri. from 2-10 p.m., Thur. from 7:30 to 11:30 a.m., Sat. 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and on Sun. 1-7 p.m. So, if the necessity or urge to create arises, consider pouring your slip and baking your ware. It may be more rewarding than you think.

CLEANING A MOLD are Mrs. Rogers (r) and Mrs. Irene Wilson.

INTO THE KILN-Mrs. Rogers puts "green ware" into shop kiln.

POURING SLIP-Mrs. Shuko Rogers pours the clay and water mixture into one of the 400 molds available.

Girl Scouts To Celebrate 56th Birthday Tuesday

By Joan Gaudin

What started out as Girl Guides 56 years ago has now become one of the largest social organizations in the United States today. The Girl Scouts of America.

Celebrating their anniversary next Tuesday, Girl Scouts will be sponsoring numerous functions and attending special services during Girl Scout Week, March 10-16.

The first Girl Scout troop meeting was held March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Ga., and their first camp was held the following summer. During this summer outing the girls voted to change their name from Girl Guides, a used in Europe, to Girl Scouts of America.

Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts, traveled all over the U.S. sharing her ideas and starting Girl Scout troops.

Since that first meeting in Savannah, millions of youngsters have taken the Girl Scout promise and, from there, may have continued their work through adult years as teachers, troop leaders and performing other necessary assignments which must be accomplished for the Girls to continue their learning.

Separated into four age groups the Girl Scout program is open to second graders and above, starting with the Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes, and Seniors.

Although the Girl Scouts do not follow any one particular religion, it is still the spiritual force behind Girl Scouting which gives life and meaning to its activities. Girl Scouts take seriously the significance of "duty to God" contained in its Promise, "On my honor, I will try to do my duty to God and my country, to help other people at all times, to obey the Girl Scout Laws--Living with this promise is an essential part of a Girl Scout's experience.

The Girl Scout program provides fruitful activity for its girls that fits easily into their lives while enabling them to observe fully their religious practices and strengthen their religious convictions.

Every effort is made through the Girl Scout program to encourage girls to become stronger members of their own religious groups, depending upon their parents or religious leaders to give them this understanding. Girl Scout Week traditionally opens on Sunday and Sabbath as observed in churches, synagogues and temples throughout the land. In observance of Girl Scout Sunday, March 10, numerous churches on Windward Oahu will be using Girl Scout insignias for their church bulletins.

In addition, there will be a special Vesper Service held at the Windward United Church of Christ for all Girl Scouts of the Kailua Neighborhood.

During this service the Senior and Cadette Scouts will conduct a program on the Promise and Laws of Scouting.

Rev. Ford Koffman will present a nondenominational address on the values of scouting. These services are scheduled from 4 to 4:30 p.m. Throughout Girl Scout Week, the raising and lowering of the American flag will be conducted at all schools by Girl Scouts.

Nearly two dozen stores in the Kailua area have donated window space for displays in commemoration of Girl Scout Week. Individual troops are responsible for each display.

As a forerunner to Girl Scout Week, the annual Girl Scout Nut Sale will be held March 9.

K-Bay Swimmers Set State Records

Records, as everyone knows, are made to be broken. And, being true to case, records reigning as long as eight years in state books toppled February 24, with nine island-wide swim clubs competing in the Hawaii State Age Group Thru Classified Short Course Swimming Meet, hosted by Schofield Barracks.

Nine records fell during the highly competitive meet, with K-Bay Swim Club members etching two new marks, while placing second. Teresa Wagner, a standout for K-Bay, won three first places in the meet, one of which was a new Hawaiian state record in the girls, 13-14 year old, 200-meter freestyle event. Teresa clipped the old mark of 2:32 by a second, set by Peggy Higood of the NAAC Swim Club in 1962. A record lasting four years in the 15-17 year old girls, 200-meter freestyle relay fell to the K-Bay relay team of Louie Albrecht, Leslie Albrecht, Patty Wagner and Joanne Hefti. The new time of 2:12.3 bested the old mark by 1.4 seconds, set by the Hekam relay team.

Wendy Moore of the Panahou Swim Club could be classified as the meet’s outstanding swimmer, setting two state marks, one of them recorded by Kathy Thomas of K-Bay in 1963. The old time of 2:52 in the girls, 11-12, 200-meter individual medley event was topped by one second, 2:51.

Competition was so keen in the swimming events, that runner-ups were bettering the old marks; even one third place swimmer finished in record time.

K-Bay Swim Club coach, Paul Slack, was pleased with the performance of his swimmers, however, he still seeks 15-17 year old boys to add strength to the swim club.

Results of K-Bay Swim Club members:

- 200-Meter, Individual Medley, Girls 15-17: Third, Lonie Albrecht, 2:54.6
