Attached to Sub Unit One, 1st ANGLICO, during his tour in Vietnam, 1st Lt.

Owen was cited for his work with Navy Seal Teams and Riverine forces from Oct. 20, 1967, to April 1, 1968. Assigned to the Rung Sat Special Zone in the delta area south of Saigon, 1st Lt. Owen accompanied Seal ambush teams deep into enemy territory to call in supporting fire missions.

Transferred north to work with the 2nd Korean Marine Brigade in April, he continued his outstanding service while assigned as the Brigade's Tactical Air Controller, Airborne, until Nov. 30, 1968, when he was transferred here to the battalion.

Dear Colonel Opeka:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to you and the members of your organization involved in coordinating the use of equipment and providing necessary personnel in support of emergency operations during the flooding conditions on the Windward Side of Oahu, Feb. 1.

This fine spirit of cooperation assisted immeasurably in relieving the situation and preventing the loss of life during this most critical period.

Mayor's Letter

Dear Colonel Opeka:

During the disastrous flooding Feb. 1, trucks and men from your command worked with units of our Police and Fire Departments in the Kaneohe-Kahaluu area. The response to our request for assistance was immediate and effective and certainly appreciated.

On behalf of the residents of the Kaneohe-Kahaluu area, I wish to thank you very much for this timely assistance. Over the years, the civilian community and the Kaneohe Marine Air Station have built up what I consider to be a wonderful working relationship. Events during the flood confirm and strengthen this.

Please extend our thanks to the officers and men who took part in the operation.

Sincerely,
Frank F. Fasi, Mayor
City and County of Honolulu

CAREER NOTES

Augmentation Offered Law Officers

The Marine Corps continues to experience a shortage of qualified lawyers. The Military Justice Act of 1968 increases the Marine Corps requirements for experienced judge advocates. To meet this immediate need for additional experienced judge advocates, an active program to encourage qualified Reserve lawyers to return to active duty must be initiated. Qualified Reserve officers are encouraged to apply for augmentation.

In addition to augmentation from the Reserve Establishment, it is necessary that all commanders ensure that all Reserve judge advocates now on active duty be counseled on the expanded needs and opportunities for career judge advocates.

Marine Corps Order 5800.7 provides constructive service for qualifying judge advocates and in general grants additional time in grade for all time spent in law school prior to becoming a commissioned officer. This will provide immediate eligibility for selection to higher grade for many judge advocates now on active duty and for many Reserve lawyers who return to active duty.

Selection of applicants for appointment as regular officers will be made on a continuing basis by a board of officers convened by the Secretary of the Navy at Headquarters Marine Corps under the provisions of the Military Justice Act of 1968.

Applicants must meet the following requirements:

Be active or inactive Reserve officers holding PERMANENT appointments in the grade of captain or lieutenant.

Possess an MOS of 4409, 4405 or 4401, or meet the requirements for assignment of these MOS's.

Possess a law degree from an accredited law school.

Be admitted to practice before the highest court of a State, or a Federal court and be physically qualified.

Applications will be forwarded to the CMC (Code DPB) via the applicant's appropriate chain of command and will include the following:

Detailed resume of applicant's legal training and experience.

Two references from persons qualified to judge the applicant's legal qualification.

Report of Medical Exam (SF 88 in duplicate) including chest X-ray and serological test, together with a report of medical history (SF 89).

The following forms are required only of Reserve officers not on active duty: Statement of personal history (Form DD 398); two fingerprint forms (OPNAV 5510-2); and one DD form 1584 (National Agency Check Request).

Officers selected under this program will be appointed in the regular Marine Corps without loss of rank or precedence. Officers appointed will be subject to all the provisions of law relating to distribution, promotion, retirement and discharge of officers in the regular Marine Corps. Officers selected for appointment under this program will be assigned a primary MOS in the legal field.

Officers who are on flight orders or receiving hazardous duty pay will have any special pay orders revoked at the time of appointment.

01's Restricted

A study group established at HQ MC has recommended restricting reclassification of personnel in OF 01 until such time as causes for shortages in OF 01 could be identified and corrective measures developed. This recommendation was subsequently approved.

Reclassification of primary OF 01 personnel is not authorized, except in the following cases: reenlistment options; input into OF 40; personnel holding a secondary MOS also considered critical; and temporary officers recently selected as regular officers who must subsequently be reclassified to a category I MOS.

Gunny Board

A selection board to consider staff sergeants for promotion to gunnery sergeant convened in Washington Jan. 10.

The board, which is expected to be in session about nine weeks, is headed by Colonel Thomas T. Grady.

Staff sergeants with a date of rank of March 1967, or earlier, are eligible for consideration. No information is available at this time on the number to be promoted.

A Senior Life Saving Course will be offered here Feb. 19 - March 5. Classes will begin at 5 p.m. on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays at the Station swimming pool. This course is available to anyone aged 16 and over. Contact Sgt. Maxwell at 72922 for further information.

SAFE DRIVER - Sergeant Thomas Hillenmeyer is congratulated by Col. Opeka as the outstanding off duty driver nominated to represent K-Bay in competition for the district award.

EDITORIAL

Auto Safety Diagnosis—1969

American automobile manufacturers are out-doing themselves year after year. Their products seem to be better engineered and more beautiful in appearance as time evolves, and they are being purchased in record numbers.

We might add that safety consciousness on the part of the manufacturers, and Congressional involvement in this area, are promoting more rigid precautions. Hundreds of autos are being recalled each year by manufacturers to repair equipment deemed unsafe.

But be this as it may, it is the driver of the automobile, in most cases, who causes the accidents. A car with faulty brakes, inadequate windshield wipers or headlights can be taken to a garage to correct these deficiencies. But, how about excessive speeding — doing 75 miles an hour on a 55 mile an hour highway?

A check with the legal office of the National Safety Council in Washington early this month produced some astounding figures.

In the first nine months of last year more than 40,000 Americans died on our highways and bi-ways! The projected figure for deaths on our roads for the remainder of 1968 will be in excess of 54,900.

While you're trying to digest those sickening figures, add 1,900,000 Americans who were injured, many so seriously they will be maimed for life.

The National Safety Council, U.S. Armed Forces, Congress and automobile manufacturers can expend all the energy in their possession to ask you to drive safely . . . but you decide the end result. It's for your sake and your family's sake — not theirs.

Remember, when the last squeal of burning rubber has faded away — who will be an added statistical figure? You or them?

For your sake and your family's sake, please drive safely during 1969.

Well, it is time again to tell you what's new at the Station Library. We have a very good selection for our readers. And some news later on from our Tape Room Patrons.

Award Presented To Gen. Walt

Lieutenant General Lewis W. Walt, Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps, has been named the 1968 winner of the Molly Pitcher Award by the Women's Forum on National Security.

The award was presented to Gen. Walt at the Organization's annual banquet Feb. 4 at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington, D.C.

In making the presentation, Mrs. Arthur B. Hannell, Forum Chairman, noted that the award, named for the heroine of Revolutionary War fame, was established in 1963 to honor distinguished service by an individual to the cause of National Security. Past recipients of the honor include Dr. Frances Kelsey, General Curtis LeMay, General William Westmoreland, Martha Raye and Bob Hope.

patrols as a platoon commander with "B" Co. He was especially cited for his actions when the helicopter in which his patrol was riding was shot down.

Ignoring his own injuries, he supervised the rapid evacuation of his unit and directed them to a suitable extract area. During this time he was carrying a seriously injured member of his patrol.

Corporal Segawa, a native of Kaneohe, received the Navy Commendation Medal for volunteering, along with six other members of his squad, to go to the rescue of members of another squad who were wounded and pinned down by enemy fire.

The action took place during Operation Taylor Common while Segawa was serving with "D" Co., 1st Bn., 1st Marine Regiment.

Captain Kahler was cited as "an outstanding officer . . . who cost the communist forces expensive losses" during Operation Houston. The citation, signed by Major General H.X. Lam, Commander of Vietnamese Forces in I Corps, credited Capt. Kahler with being instrumental in the success of that operation.

Staff Sgt. Mitrovich was praised for his work as the battalion's embarkation and logistics chief during their tour in Vietnam. Particularly noteworthy was his relocation of supplies during the battle for Hue City, following the 1968 Tet Offensive.

Hospitalman Bronson, who served with "D" Battery, 1st Bn., 27th Marines, in Vietnam, earned the Navy Achievement Medal for his "constant disregard of personal safety, his courage, and professional skill."

PROOF POSITIVE - For all those sailors and Marines who have been saddled with a "mail buoy" watch, here is visual proof that such a thing does exist. This one washed ashore on North Beach and when opened by postal authorities was found to have been dropped off by the United States Lines freighter American Chieftain.

Overseas Job Needs Create New Openings

Needs for staffing overseas positions have increased significantly as the Navy's world-wide responsibilities have grown. Positions which are vacant range from a variety of skilled trade workers to high-level engineers and administrators. Areas where positions must be filled are located in countries around the globe, but the majority of positions are in the Pacific area. Many of the positions have extra benefits and privileges including 10 to 25 percent pay differential in selected areas.

Station employees desiring to register in the Automated Overseas Employment Referral Program are urged to call or visit the Industrial Relations Office, Building 267. Registrations will be accepted for only those geographical areas and position categories listed on the DOD Acceptance List and Positive Recruiting List. These are lists issued by the DOD Computer Center, and they identify the areas and positions for which employees may register for referral consideration at overseas locations. These lists are posted on the bulletinboard in the Industrial Relations Office and the Public Works Office.

WestPac Marines Tangle With Tiger

QUANG TRI, Vietnam, I could think about was to get the tiger away from a man-eating tiger was killed by members of a small Marine patrol Dec. 22 when the 400 pound cat attacked a 3rd Reconnaissance Bn. Marine in the northwestern corner of South Vietnam.

The Marine who was attacked is listed in satisfactory condition at a military hospital at Quang Tri. Identification is being withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

The six-man recon team was on an observation mission near Fire Support Base Alpine, six miles east of the Laotian border in Quang Tri Province, when it encountered the tiger. The team had completed its mission and was waiting to be heli-lifted from the area, when the incident occurred. Bad weather conditions had prevented immediate pick-up and the team had posted a two-man radio watch while the others settled down to sleep.

The tiger struck silently and swiftly.

"Suddenly I heard somebody scream," said Pfc Thomas E. Shainline (Gilbertsville, Penn.) "and then somebody else was yelling, 'It's a tiger! It's a tiger!'"

Pfc. Roy Regan (Nacogdoches, Texas), who had been sleeping next to the attacked Marine recalled, "I jumped up and saw the tiger on my partner. All holding his prey."

The Marines quickly followed the tiger to the bomb crater and opened fire on the attacking beast. They could not be sure which one of them actually killed the tiger, since they all fired at it.

Once hit, the tiger released his prey and the attacked Marine staggered out of the bomb crater.

"He looked dazed and asked what had happened," recalled Pfc. Maurice M. Howell (Richmond, Ky.).

The injured Marine was given first aid treatment and a medical evacuation helicopter was called.

In minutes, a Marine CH-46 helicopter arrived to pick-up the injured Marine, the rest of the team and the now dead tiger.

The injured Marine was rushed to the 3rd Medical Bn. hospital at Quang Tri, suffering from lacerations and bites on the neck.

The tiger, measuring nine feet from head to tail, was transported to the 3rd Reconnaissance Bn headquarters.

The incident took place about 10 miles south of the demilitarized zone near the spot where a young Marine was slain by a man-eating tiger Nov. 12.

DEAD CAT - Members of a reconnaissance team examine a nine foot long, 600 pound tiger they killed while on a patrol in the northwestern sector of South Vietnam. The Marines killed the cat when it attacked one of the patrol's members.

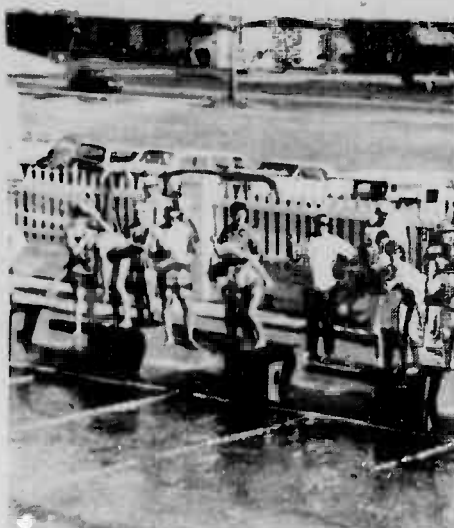

W.O. Meeting

K-Bay Swimmers Make Big Waves

Taking that mark is a tense moment

The gun sounds

And you're off

Last Saturday, Marines sleeping in the quarters which surround the swimming pool were probably awakened by the loud cheers of youngsters from the K-Bay swim club. The youngsters, in age groups from ten and under, 11-12, 13-14 and 15-17 were participating in their second unclassified meet of the season. Such clubs as the Naval Air Aquatic Club, Naval Air Aquatic Club, Hawaii Kai Swim Club, The Junior Seaside Laie and the Central "Y" Town Swim Club provided the competition.

Major Paul Slack, coach of the K-Bay swimmers stated that the team was doing rather well. His statement was a modest one however, as several of his swimmers turned in excellent classifying times.

Little Maggie Buckon was the K-Bay standout as she turned in qualifying times in both the 100 meter Butterfly for girls ten and under and the 100 meter freestyle. In the Butterfly event Maggie cut three seconds off the qualifying time as she hit the finish at 1:51.0 flat. Jane Cooper also qualified in this same event as she turned in a fine time of 1:53.5. Later, in the 100 meter free style Maggie beat the clock by .2 of a second as she was timed in 1:29.0 to qualify in her second event of the day.

Max Kay was K-Bay's first qualifier of the meet as he took first place in the boys 100 meter breast stroke in the 15-17 year old group. His time for the event was a fine 1:25.0.

Mary Mellon also became a qualifier as she turned in a time of 1:19.0 in the 100 meter freestyle event. Teammate Russ Yahr of K-Bay ran away with the 13-14 year old boys 50 meter free style as he turned in a 28.0. His closest competition was Allen Atwell of the Naval Air Aquatic Club with a time of 32.0 flat. Russ was the only qualifier in the event which needed a time of 30 seconds or lower to qualify.

The season is young however and the K-Bay team seems to be on the move. Swimming seems to be one sport in which the participants like to practice. The youngsters love to swim and many show promise as future qualifiers.

You're streaking through the water

The home stretch is tough

But you've finally brought home the victory!

Rodeo Time At K-Bay

Swimming, surfing, pineapples, bikinis; these words quickly become a part of your vocabulary if you stay on the islands for any length of time. However, the word "Rodeo", although not common, will quickly arouse interest in most mainlanders whether from Montana or Maine.

The rodeo has always been a part of American tradition and has been enthusiastically welcomed here in our newest state.

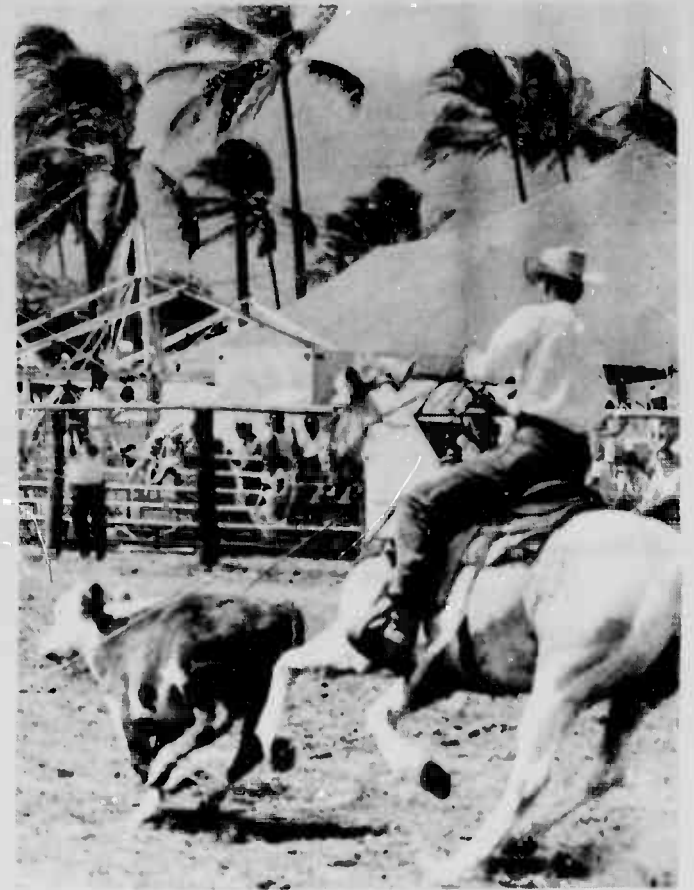

The residents of K-Bay will get their chance to view this favorite American sport on Feb. 22 when KMCAS sponsors the First Annual Presidents Day Quarter Horse Show.

The event, approved by the American Quarter Horse Association is an excellent combination of care and grooming of horses plus several rodeo type events.

There will be 28 total classes starting at 8 a.m. in the stables area and lasting until approximately 4 p.m. All children should enjoy the show along with the parents, and refreshments will be sold. There will be bleachers available for approximately 3,000 people. Anominal fee of 25 cents will be charged at the gate.

Horses entering the events at the show will be registered except for two events, the open jumping class and the cutting horse class.

Other events will include an English Pleasure Horse contest which is a Western horse with the rider in English attire. A registered Western Pleasure Horse, a Western riding horse, a Western reining horse, calf roping, working cow horse, steer roping, pole bending and regular barrel racing.

A Favorite Event at the Rodeo

Major General Fred W. Makinney, Hawaii Army National Guard, retired, and former Adjutant General of Hawaii for over sixteen years, is the horse show superintendent for the First Annual Show.

Major General Makinney was a member of the U.S Army polo team in 1931 and played in tournaments at Meadowbrook, N.Y. and at Rumson N.J. During 1935 while stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, he was a member of the local Army polo team and played in Inter-Island polo tournaments. General George S. Patton, then a Lieutenant Colonel, was a member of the team.

Judge for the rodeo will be William R. Cowan, who has been an approved judge since 1960 and has judged shows in California, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas. He is at the present time a director for the Arizona Quarter Horse Breeders Association. In addition to registered Quarter Horses, the Cowan Ranches produce Hereford, Brahma and commercial crossbred cattle.

Boxing Program Begins

If sports fans have been keeping up with their reading, they have noticed that boxing has recently punched its way into sports pages all across the island.

Kaneohe Bay is not far behind as the Special Services Department has announced the formation of an Intramural Boxing League.

Matches will be held every Friday night in the Hangar 103 gym with the first smoker scheduled for March 7.

Persons interested in getting on a unit boxing team should contact your unit sports representative.

All intramural participants will be required to wear light shoes, such as tennis shoes, athletic trunks, mouth piece and head gear. No necklaces or metals can be worn while in the ring. All boxers must have physicals and will be notified at a later date is to the time and place. A weigh in will also be held for each bout on the day prior to each match. Although many teams have already started training, such as road work and weight-lifting, those who would like to use gloves can check out 16 ounce sets for use in the 103 gym. However, all contestants will be using eight or ten ounce in the matches, depending on the weight class. Each match will consist of three two minute rounds.

Trophies will be provided for first and second place in team events and individual trophies for each weight division.

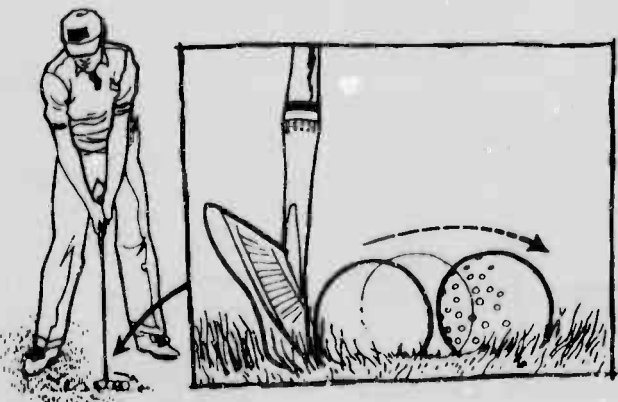

The K-Bay league will be using AAU rules in order to allow qualified fighters to participate in local contests or in the National AAU finals on April 17. The AAU will be providing the referees for the first two smokers and also a clinic to help train interested persons who would like to become corner men or judges. The clinic will be tonight, Feb. 14, starting at 7 p.m. in the Hangar 103 gym.

Also beginning soon is a Biddie boxing program. Biddie boxing is for youngsters from the ages of 7 to 17. Persons interested in entering a youngster can contact Station Special Services.

Biddie boxing is currently sponsored by the Honolulu Police Athletic League (PAL) which has volunteered to put on an exhibition match for interested youngsters. The exhibition will be held on Feb. 28 in the 103 gym, starting at 7:30 p.m. A standard rule to note in biddie boxing is that a difference of one year in age and one pound in weight is all that is allowed between two competing boxers.

Tour, Tea Given To Benefit NRS

A house tour and tea to benefit the Navy Relief Society was held Saturday, Feb. 8, at Pearl Harbor in honor of Navy and Marine Corps wives who serve as Navy Relief volunteers, who number some 590 in Hawaii.

Admiral and Mrs. John S. McCain Jr., the Navy's leading family in Hawaii, sponsored the event at their 55-year-old residence, Quarters "A", the oldest Navy quarters in the Islands.

More than 350 Navy and Marine Corps officer and enlisted personnel and their wives paid $2 each to attend.

All proceeds went to the Navy Relief Society, the Navy's own charity organization, which was founded 65 years ago last month to help needy Navy and Marine Corps personnel and their families.

Quarters "A" has been the center of Navy social activities since its first occupant, Rear Admiral C. T. B. Moore, moved in in 1914. Queen Liliuokalani, Hawaii's last ruling monarch, was among the 400 guests who attended the first reception held at the quarters.

Thirty flag and senior naval officers have resided at Quarters "A" since then.

The silver tea service from the nuclear aircraft carrier USS Enterprise was loaned to the Navy Relief Society for the tea. The service was a gift to the ship from the wife of the first commanding officer of the World War II carrier, Navy Captain Newton H. White Jr.

HOUSE OF THE MONTH - Major and Mrs. C. T. Huckelberry were congratulated by Lt. Col. Farrell, Station X-O, for the "great deal of pride and many hours of hard work that went into the landscaping" of their yard.
