

TRAINING SUPPORT ACTIVITY EUROPE

MONTH IN PHOTOS
JULY 2016

A British Army Royal Military Academy Sandhurst cadet scans his surroundings during a squad level move to contact mission as part of Exercise Dynamic Victory at the 7th Army Training Command's Grafenwoehr Training Area, Germany, July 11, 2016.

The exercise is the final field exercise for Sandhurst cadets before they become commissioned officers in the British army. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Gertrud Zach)

Photo of the 3rd Quarter FY 2016

An Ariete Italian tank fires at its target, during the Strong Europe Tank Challenge (SETC), at the 7th Army Training Command's Grafenwoehr Training Area, Grafenwoehr, Germany, May 12, 2016.
(U.S. Army photo by Spc. Nathanael Mercado)

(U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Jason Johnston)

RTSD WEST

Ukrainian Medical Officers - sustained military medical training

1st Lt. Bogdana Tverdokhlib (left), Instructor of the Ukraine 169th Training Center changes her unit patches with Cdt. Marcos Urena (center right), ROTC Cadet of St. John's University New York City, New York, and Cdt. Amanda Rylee, ROTC Cadet of Marion Military Institute, Marion, Alabama, during a Medical Sustainment Class at the Viper Pit, 421st Medical Battalion (Multifunctional), Baumholder, Germany, July 21, 2016. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Ruediger Hess)

Police cars speedometers calibration

Belgian police officers check the speed of a vehicle passing a speed radar on the airstrip of Chièvres Air Base, Tuesday, July 26, 2016. Chièvres Military Police made an agreement with the Belgian Federal Police of Hainaut to use the airstrip once a year to calibrate the speedometers of both American military and Belgian police vehicles. The vehicles pass the radar at stabilized speeds with increments of 10 kph, and the radar provides the real speed. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Henri Cambier)

International Special Training Centre Advanced Casualty Sustainment Care Medical Training Course

Soldiers from various nations participate in the Advanced Casualty Sustainment Care Medical Training Course which was hosted by the International Special Training Centre, July 20, 2016, Pfullendorf, Germany. The multinational students receive the training to enhance their medical skills to support NATO Soldiers, Sailors and Airmen and Marines. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Jason Johnston)

RTSD EAST

Unveiling of the new 7th ATC Headquarters sign

The 7th Army Training Command's (7th ATC) Command group and employees of the Training Support Activity Europe's Training Aids Production Center get together to unveil the new 7th ATC Headquarter sign at Tower Barracks, Grafenwoehr Germany, July 14, 2016. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Gertrud Zach)

Exercise Dynamic Victory

U.S. Military Academy cadets engage targets as part of the British Army Royal Military Academy Sandhurst's Exercise Dynamic Victory at the 7th Army Training Command's Grafenwoehr Training Area, Germany, July 12, 2016. The exercise is the final field exercise for Sandhurst cadets before they become commissioned officers in the British army. (U.S. Army photo by Christoph Koppers)

Fast Rope Insertion / Extraction System Training

The crew of a UH-60 Black Hawk prepares a rope as Army National Guard - Helicopter Task Force takes part in fast rope insertion/extraction system training at the Oberdachstetten Range MOUT site near Ansbach, Germany, July 26, 2016. ARNG-HTF is deployed for three months in support of Special Operation Command Europe. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Georgios Moumoulidis)

(U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Gertrud Zach)

RTSD SOUTH

Airborne Operation

U.S. Army paratrooper Staff Sgt. Zach Baron, assigned to 2nd Battalion, 503rd Infantry Regiment, 173rd Airborne Brigade, recovers his equipment after conducting airborne operations at Juliet Drop Zone in Pordenone, Italy, July 26, 2016. The 173rd Airborne Brigade is the U.S. Army Contingency Response Force in Europe, capable of projecting ready forces anywhere in the U.S. European, Africa or Central Commands' areas of responsibility within 18 hours. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Davide Dalla Massara)

Short Range marksmanship training

Training Support Specialist Vincenzo Vitiello, from 7th ATC TSC Livorno, interviews Staff Sgt. Kohlby Hollingsworth, Battle Company, 2-503rd Infantry, 173rd Airborne Brigade, July 20, 2016, during a short range marksmanship training at Foce Reno in Italy. (U.S. Army photo by Elena Baladelli)

1st Italian Airborne Regiment Carabinieri Tuscania, Training at Caserma Ederle

Italian Carabinieri of the 1st Airborne Regiment Carabinieri "Tuscania", conduct training using the Mine Resistant Ambushed protected (MRAP) egress assistance trainer (HEAT), at caserma Ederle Vicenza, Italy, July 6, 2016. The simulator allows soldiers to practice exit from vehicles, skills and engage in realistic scenarios. Carabinieri use U.S. Army RTSD South equipment to enhance the bilateral relations and to expand levels of cooperation and the capacity of the personnel involved in joint operations. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Paolo Bovo)

Members of U.S. and Italian Special Forces Units conduct a free fall jump from a C-130JS Hercules aircraft at Frida Drop Zone in Pordenone, Italy, July 26, 2016. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Davide Dalla Massara)

EXPEDITIONARY TRAINING SUPPORT

ZAGAN, Poland - Soldiers of 3rd Combined Arms Battalion, 69th Armor Regiment, 3rd Infantry Division, conduct Javelin Medium Anti-armor Weapon System training at Zagan Training Area, Poland, July 20, 2016. The unit, on a training rotation in Support of Operation Atlantic Resolve, fire the Javelin weapons during a training event at the Presidential range complex Zagan Training area. The Training Support Team Poland provided training enablers to support their Javelin weapons training event. The TST is just one of the many TST's forward deployed that provides expeditionary training support to Operation Atlantic Resolve. The TST's are assigned to the Training Support Activity Europe that provides both U.S. Army Europe and partner-nations Soldiers with the ability to perform rigorous, realistic and relevant training that enhances their combat readiness to demonstrate U.S. commitment to the collective security of NATO and its dedication to enduring peace and stability in the region. (U.S. Army photo by Mr. Daniel Cintron, Training Support Team Poland)

U.S. Army photos by Mr. Daniel Cintron,
Training Support Team Poland

IMPRESSIONS

>>> To see more informations click on the images <<<

Photo credits:

First row: Davide Dalla Massara; Paolo Bovo; Dee Crawford; Georgios Moumoulidis

Second row: Antonio Bedin; Ruediger Hess ; Antonio Bedin

Third row: Henri Cambier; Jason Johnston; Pfc. Emily Houdershielt; Antonio Bedin

To find out more information about VI products, support and services, contact your local Training Support Center.

To schedule Visual Information (VI) documentation of your next event please go to www.vios.army.mil

All photos were provided by Training Support Activity Europe (TSAE). To see more TSAE photos and videos visit us on DVIDS at www.dvidshub.net/unit/TSAE

You can also visit us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/#!/TrainingSupportActivityEurope?fref=ts

U.S. Army paratroopers assigned to 2nd Battalion, 503rd Infantry Regiment, 173rd Airborne Brigade, conduct an airborne operation from a U.S. Air Force 86th Air Wing C-130 Hercules aircraft at Juliet Drop Zone in Pordenone, Italy, July 26, 2016. The 173rd Airborne Brigade is the U.S. Army Contingency Response Force in Europe, capable of projecting ready forces anywhere in the U.S. European, Africa or Central Commands' areas of responsibility within 18 hours. (U.S. Army photo by Visual Information Specialist Davide Dalla Massara)

This product was designed and produced by

